

PRESIDENT IS NOT ACTIVE IN FORD'S PEACE CAMPAIGN

Does Not Believe Time Opportune To Take Steps

Washington, Nov. 26.—President Wilson will take no part in the campaign to bring about a peace conference now being carried on in this and other neutral countries. While he will interpose no objection to the unofficial movement, he has heard nothing from Europe which leads him to believe that the time is opportune for him to take any steps.

Telegrams urging the president to support the movement for a conference of neutrals continued to pour in at the White House today. A delegation of peace advocates will call on the president late today.

The president is keeping in close touch with peace sentiment abroad through American diplomatic representatives and is devoting much time and study to the question. It is stated authoritatively at the first intimation from officials of the warring nations that such efforts would be welcome the president will renew his offer of services to aid in ending the war.

Henry Ford's peace ship will not carry any representatives of the American government and unless the situation changes in the meantime the government will not take any part in the meeting proposed.

The president is not expected to make any official announcement regarding the peace campaign now being carried on but will continue his policy of carefully watching the developments in order that he may be ready to do whatever he can when the time arrives.

THIRTEEN KILLED, TWENTY INJURED TOLL OF TORNADO

Hot Springs, Ark., Nov. 26.—Relief work was resumed at day break today in the tornado swept farming district south of Hot Springs, in which thirteen persons are known to have been killed late yesterday. Twenty persons were injured, several of them seriously. It is said the death toll may go higher when full details of the storm are known. The city of Hot Springs was not touched by the storm and one was hurt within the city limits. Six of the dead were white persons, all of them killed in the destruction of their farm houses by the storm. Many of the injured were brought to hospitals here.

SEEK WILSON'S SUPPORT FOR PEACE MOVEMENT

Washington, Nov. 26.—President Wilson had an engagement late today to see Mrs. Philip Snowden, wife of a member of the British parliament, and Mrs. Rosika Schwimmer, of Hungary, who seeks the president's support of the movement for a neutral conference to attempt to end the European war and establish permanent peace. They were to be presented to the president by Henry Ford.

The conference is the climax of a telegraphic campaign in which women in all parts of the country, at the suggestion of Miss Jane Addams, of Chicago, and other leading women peace advocates, participated, urging the president to interest himself in having the proposed conference of neutral nations called.

SOMEWHAT SKEPTICAL OF GREEK ASSURANCES

London, Nov. 26.—The Pall Mall Gazette, recalling the assurances given by Eleutherios Venizelos the Greek Ex-premier, and the way they were nullified by King Constantine's actions regarding the present Greek assurance with skepticism and declares that the promises of Premier Sazonovs and his colleagues, whatever shape they may assume, are not to be taken too seriously. What has been secured apparently by the gentle pinch of four days arrest of Greek shipping, the newspapers say "is the assurance that Greece will not quite be as treacherous as words which certain of her ministers might have implied. That the Greek army is to remain mobilized will prevent any sure sense of security on the point of the Allies.

Prisoner's Life Hangs In Balance

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 26.—William Faltin, condemned to hang today, was declared insane by two physicians at Florence prison today, but Wiley Jones, attorney general and fellow members of the state board of pardons and paroles, went to the prison to see that the execution was not halted except by a court order or the consent of the prison board.

R. D. Sims, warden of the state penitentiary, declared Faltin would not be placed on the gallows traps until the last minute. The execution may be legally delayed until four o'clock this afternoon.

Mrs. Morris Abrams is ill at her home in the St. Clair Hotel, suffering with an attack of asthma.

ONE MAN CHARTERED SIX VESSELS TO STEAMSHIP LINE FOR RELIEF PURPOSES

New York, N. Y., Nov. 26.—One man alone, John J. Turney, of Philadelphia, procured for and chartered to the Hamburg-American Line in the early stages of the war six of the fleet of sixteen vessels which the government charges the line with having sent to the relief of German cruisers in the Atlantic and Pacific.

This development in the trial, on charges of conspiracy, of officials of the line came from the witness stand today and from the lips of Mr. Turney, a frankly hostile witness.

The concession of the defendants, introduced at an earlier date, shows that the line spent $545,000 for charters alone in the case of these six vessels.

The total cost, including supplies which Mr. Turney chartered to the line were the Heina, sailing from Philadelphia August 6, 1914; for Laguna, the Nepos, sailing from Philadelphia August 22, for Monrovia; the Mowinkel sailing September 2, from Philadelphia for Monrovia; the Unita, sailing from Philadelphia for Cadix, and the Fram and Sommerstad which took out clearance papers but did not sail as their alleged plans to reach German cruisers became known. The Fram took out clearance papers for Pernambuco and the Sommerstad for Cadix.

Mr. Turney testified, apparently with great reluctance, that Adolph Hochmeister and George Koller, purchasing agent and general superintendent of the line, respectively, defendants in the present action gave him all the information upon which he acted in chartering the vessels, and held many conferences with him concerning them. All the vessels were cleared by the witness who sent his clerk to the customs house in Philadelphia to swear to the manifests.

"Did you know that these destinations were false?" the government's counsel asked.

"I did not."

"Did you know these vessels were trying to reach German cruisers in the Atlantic?"

"No."

Mr. Turney was compelled to surrender to the government's counsel all correspondence in his possession hearing on the chartering of the vessels most of this was with the Hamburg-American line.

When Captain Neilson completed his story, Judge Howe declared a short recess and summoned leading counsel, for both the government and the defense to his chambers for a conference, the nature of which was not disclosed. It was reported, however, that the conference concerned legal procedure in the case and nothing else.

After the recess the government switched again to the lead.

INCREASE IN INTERNAL TAXATION WOULD MEET DEFENSE PROGRAM COST

Washington, Nov. 26.—Cost of the administration's defense program for the first year would be met by an increase in internal taxation if Congress gives its approval to Secretary McAdoo's suggestion.

In a formal announcement, Mr. McAdoo declared his belief that an increased tax levy was preferable to a bond issue, adding that it could easily be borne by the American people. He would raise the necessary revenue by lowering the income tax exemptions and assess various commodities.

Secretary McAdoo's statement was issued in connection with an estimate of the federal government's revenues and expenditures up to the close of the next fiscal year. He places the amount of additional revenue required for the expenditure for 1917 at $112,500,394, including $92,500,000 for new measures for national defenses.

If Congress approves of Secretary McAdoo's proposals, the income tax exemption on single persons would be reduced from $3,000 to $2,000 and on married persons from $4,000 to $3,000. The surplus tax on incomes above $20,000 would be lowered to $10,000 or $15,000, and new taxes would be imposed on numerous articles, including gasoline, crude and refined oils, horse power of automobiles and other engines.

Governor Willis Is Doubtful Whether He Will Make Trip

Columbus, O., Nov. 26.—Governor Willis indicated today he is favorably inclined toward accepting Henry Ford's invitation to accompany the American Peace expedition to Europe December 4. He will decide definitely later today after conferring with a number of administration and political leaders.

Many influential persons today urged the trip to represent Ohio in the party.

The party is expected to return in about one month, remaining away during the holiday season. Governor Willis said he had planned to spend a large part of his time next month visiting state institutions, and these plans caused him to hesitate to accept Mr. Ford's invitation.

"I am greatly impressed with the importance of the expedition however, I am debating whether I can serve the people better by remaining here and attending strictly to state business, or by assisting in my small way in the larger cause of world peace."

It is not known whether the men invited to take the trip are expected to be accompanied by their wives. Neither the governor nor Mrs. Willis have ever been in Europe. The proposed expedition will be on the Oscar I. U. of the Scandinavian American line, sailing from New York for Christiania, Stockholm and Copenhagen.

Shortly after noon today Governor Willis made public the copy of a telegram he had sent Mr. Ford and which read:

"Columbus, O., November 26-15. "Henry Ford, "New York city.

"The opportunity to render service in promotion of international peace afforded by your cordial invitation to be your guest aboard the Oscar II., is greatly appreciated. Important public business of state of Ohio, demanding attention during next month, renders my acceptance doubtful. Will wire definitely on receipt of letter. Thanks for the honor.

"Frank B. Willis."

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 26.—Governor Fielder today declined an invitation of Henry Ford to be his guest in the proposed delegation to establish an international conference to negotiate for peace abroad. A telegram sent by Governor Fielder said:

A mighty fine and good-hearted lady is Mrs. Ellen Watson of the Old Ladies' Home. When her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Francis Watson, of Portland, Oregon, sent her a big box of fruit for Thanksgiving what did she do but put a great big bunch of grapes and a couple of apples in a basket and bring 'em over to me. And those grapes, Gen! the bunch was over a foot long and had enough fruit in it for me and the whole Times staff. Many, many thanks, and just for that kindness I'll do my best to extend that fine weather season a few weeks longer. Here's for tomorrow:

Dancing, singing, cards, and the mingling of old and new acquaintances featured the evening's enjoyment; and while the quarters are somewhat cramped for dancing, the "Moon Parlor" was the scene of much indulgence in this pastime, with the one real moon as a spectator, and probably gathering data on Mr. Terpsichore's very latest.

COLUMBIA GRAFONOLA

THE Columbia Grafonola is a musical instrument of magnificent range and power, yet capable of the utmost delicacy of expression.

The wonderful Columbia sound-chamber, as responsive to every slightest vibration as the body of a cello; the sensitive Columbia reproducer; the perfected tone-arm and the tone-control "leaves" that operate on the principle of an organ's shutter—all exclusive Columbia features, representing the highest developments of acoustic science—give the Columbia Grafonola a clearness and flexibility of tone not even approximated in any sound-reproducing instrument heretofore devised.

The musicianly qualities of the Columbia Grafonola, and the matchless fidelity of Columbia records have made both pre-eminently the choice of musicians of discrimination. "Hearing is Believing." That is the final test.

Heroic measures were necessary to save the life of the one year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bussler of Wheelersburg, Thursday afternoon, who suffered a severe choking spell, after swallowing a small quantity of lamp oil. Dr. G. M. Andre was hastily summoned, and administered to the little one until he was out of danger.

A small quantity of oil had been left in a tin cup after the greater part of it had been used to start a fire. The babe secured the tin and drank the oil before the parents could prevent it.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache is a sign you have been eating too much meat, which forms uric acid.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and clogged. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach aches, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get more, water acids and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jael Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness. Jael Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

ing and sailing of the Costa Rican steamer Marina Quesada, which cleared Newport News, Virginia, Dec. 16, 1914, with coal for Valparaiso, Chile. This vessel is charged with being one of the fleet of relief ships. The defense denies this and vigorously opposed evidence concerning her.

George W. Atkins, a coal merchant of this city, testified that he sold the coal taken aboard the Marina Quesada to Schumaker and Pitkin, agents, the witness said, of the North German Lloyd. So far as the defendants were concerned they were not connected with the purchase of the witness' knowledge. Atkins swore to the ship's cargo manifest on which clearance was granted by Collector Hamilton.

New York, N. Y., Nov. 26.—Only a few of the 16 or 17 vessels which left Atlantic and Pacific ports early in the war with supplies for German cruisers had figured in the government's evidence when the trial of Karl Bueenz and other officers and employees of the Hamburg-American Line charged with conspiracy to defraud the United States, in filing false manifests in these supply ships was resumed today. Attorneys for the prosecution said they still had a great mass of evidence.

Most of the testimony has dealt with shipments made from Atlantic ports, but the assistant district attorney has promised to show that the alleged conspiracy extended to San Francisco.

The Norwegian steamer Nepos, which sailed from Philadelphia August 22, 1914, with supplies for German cruisers at sea, although she cleared for Monrovia, was the first vessel concerning whose activities witnesses testified today. Roger B. Wood, of the government's counsel, put her Captain Olaf Neilsen on the stand and asked him to tell what happened after he left Philadelphia.

"My superior, Mr. Finhr, told me that we expected to meet a German cruiser," Captain Neilsen said. "I learned later that the cruiser was the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, which was sunk some time afterwards by the High Flyer."

Finhr wanted me to go to Cape Verde Islands, but I told him I would not do it.

It developed that Captain and Supercargo both had their own ideas of where they were going and that the captain refused to obey the supercargo's orders that he go to this, that, or the other place in the Atlantic, but held his course for Africa.

This course was via Tenerife. There they stopped. The supercargo balked and angry, told the captain to sail no further but lie in the harbor. It was virtually the only order of the supercargo that was obeyed. For five months the Nepos tugged at her anchor there. Then she sailed home empty, her charter canceled.

"How did you dispose of your cargo?" the witness was asked. "A fire spoiled some," he said. "Some was sold to British agents—there were English warships there—and some went to the German consul."

The defense admits that the Hamburg-American Line chartered the Nepos.

Sweet Note Of Patriotism Rings Through Splendid Peace Meeting

A peace program of unusual interest was given under the auspices of the Women's Literary Club Friday afternoon at the club parlors, Fifth and Court streets. Over eighty-five were present, including Mayor Adam Kirk, who has taken an active interest in peace movements. The audience was composed of members of all women's clubs in the city and a number of guests who are deeply interested in universal peace.

Mrs. Samuel Horchow, president of the club, presided over the meeting, which soon took on a patriotic aspect. Mrs. Horchow read a lengthy paper on "Millarism", and followed with a short paper on "Lay Down Your Arms."

The second number on the program was a reading by Mrs. Lena Kline Reed on the subject, "Swords and Ploughshares". She told briefly of the establishment of school peace leagues in different parts of the country. She read of the different branches of peace clubs and leagues, and closed her reading with "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men."

Mrs. Jean Kline gave a talk on "The World Peace Foundation and Baroness Von Suttner". She gave a splendid review of peace plans and peace organizations.

She dwelt for some time upon the peace work of June Addams and Baroness Von Suttner.

The Peace Movement, the Hague Conference, the Influence of the Peace Power and Heroes of Peace, was the subject of a talk made by Miss Margaret Fritzsche. Mrs. Carrie E. Bates gave a short talk on "The God of War is Now a Man of Business with Vested Interests, the Brain of Armaments, Syndicates for War—After the Battle."

The Mission of Women of the United States in the cause of Universal Peace was the subject of a talk made by Mrs. Lydia Howe.

Paper flags of all nations decorated the club room. They are the property of Rev. J. W. Downing. During the program Mrs. C. L. Storker rendered a vocal solo with Mrs. Sam Crawford as accompanist. The Czervinski Trio played national airs of the belligerent countries and the peace meeting was of unusual interest. A note of patriotism running through the proceedings that breathe the real spirit of wholesome peace.

Expense Accounts From Otway Field

The expense accounts of Major-elect Unger and other newly-elected officials of Otway made a belated appearance at the office of James R. Distel, clerk of the board of elections, Thursday. Though they were received after the specified time, it is likely that certificates of election will be issued to them, since the delay was not intentional, and no money was spent by any of them.

In the event that the clerk of Otway refuses to furnish the certificates of election, the officials-elect will probably bring mandamus proceedings in common pleas court.

ALL THEY BAGGED WAS SWEET POTATOES

Employees of the Salvage store are making life miserable for two of the clerks, Kenneth Markins, of Peables, and Louis Krieger, of this city, today. The boys left this city early Thursday morning, with 76 rounds of ammunition for a day's hunt on the Markins farm, near Peables. They shot the entire amount, and all they could show for their day's sport on their return was a mess of sweet potatoes.

HAS "HOME GROWN" ORANGES

Walter Havener, N. & W. clerk, spent Thursday with home folks at South Webster. He found the Havener orange tree full of oranges, having over 60 oranges on its branches. He was led out doors, but returned later armed with brick bats and threatened dire things. Friends finally spirited him away.

TERMINALS

Conductor Seerest and Engineers Jenkins and Coe were in charge of the train.

N. & W. time freight N. 54 with Conductor L. W. Crookshanks and Engineer Sawyer in charge, derailed a car at Roma, O., Thursday. A three foot piece of iron found sticking between two ties caused the trucks of a car to leave the tracks. The train crew cleared the track.

N. & W. extra freight No. 1351 was delayed by an accident west of Dorney, O. near Chillicothe, Thursday. An air hose burst, the brakes going on in emergency, which caused a car to buckle, one and dropping onto the track. The train crew and work force with Roadmaster G. W. Echard in charge, cleared the track. Passenger train No. 16 was delayed nearly an hour. Conductor E. L. Brown and Engineer F. A. McLeod were in charge.

Receives Word Son Has Gone To Greece

William F. Taylor, prominent banker of Waverly, received word Wednesday from the New York offices of the Standard Oil company that his eldest son, Safford, had been transferred from Smyrna, Asia, to Athens, Greece. Since the European war broke out Mr. Taylor has been unable to have direct communication with his son, a fact which has occasioned him and his family much anxiety. The last heard from young Taylor by the company was about a month ago, when he was alive and well. At the outbreak of the war he was located in Constantinople, but has been transferred twice since then. He has been in the war zone of three different wars since he has been in the foreign service.

Missing Husband Is Located; Is Sent To The Workhouse

A few days ago Olive Sprague, of Fourth street, learned that her husband, Stephen Sprague, whom she had mourned as missing for the Boston. She informed Judge Beatty who immediately had a warrant sworn out for his arrest on a charge of non-support.

Deputy Sheriff Arthur Smith located Sprague Thursday morning and placed him under arrest.

Sprague, according to his wife, abandoned her and their two small children, aged seven and six years, respectively, over six years ago. He left home before the younger child was born, and has never seen it. For the past two years the mother has been the recipient of monthly allowances from the widow's pension fund, which has assisted her in providing for the two children. At the hearing in probate court this morning it developed that Sprague had come between another man and his wife in New Boston, and had been openly associating with the wife, the husband having left home on account of her unfaithfulness.

When arrested Sprague was just sitting down to a big Thanksgiving dinner with his alleged affinity at her home in New Boston, the office of a searching lecture and gave him the limit, a $500 fine and one year in the Cincinnati workhouse.

The Movies

Famous Players Present Two Great Stars in "The Fatal Card," at Columbia Tonight

With a lavishness difficult to measure in words with a generosity that conforms with all its past traditions, the Famous Players Co. in association with the Charles Frohman Co., was not content to present one star in its screen version of the famous dramatic success, "The Fatal Card," but, notwithstanding the importance and fame of the subject itself, has assigned two of its stars to interpret its leading roles. These players are no less important favorites than John Mason and Hazel Dawn. The former will be remembered for his sterling and powerful characterization in his first screen appearance, in "Jim the Penman," and Hazel Dawn, one of the most charming members of the set of younger American stars, recently deserted the stage permanently to become allied indefinitely with the Famous Players Film Co., and is now well established as one of the shining stars of the motion picture firmament.

This unusual stellar combination, added to the famous and at all times absorbing drama, "The Fatal Card," makes this five-part Paramount picture at the Columbia today one of the greatest attractions ever presented to the motion picture public. At the Columbia tomorrow you will see the adorable Florence La Badie, remembered by numberless motion picture fans as the heroine of the celebrated serial, "The Million Dollar Mystery," who has the leading role in the four-part Mutual masterpiece, "God's Witness," the first release by the Thrustmaster company of New Rochelle in this notable series inaugurated by the Mutual Film company to meet the public demand for "better motion pictures." Miss La Badie is ably supported. In the cast which includes her name are also Arthur Hoyer, Mary Elizabeth Forbes, Sidney Bracy, Morris Foster and Harris Gordon.

The story depends for its climax upon a novel and unusual effect. This strange denouement is as timely and thrilling as it is extraordinary and provokes applause and interest. The drama is the work of the famous author August Evans Wilson.

Four Big Features at the Arcana Theatre Tonight

The lovers of the movies will be interested in learning that the program at the Arcana tonight is one of the best ever offered by Manager Potts. It is to be fun to night you don't want to miss the big features. First will be an L. K. O. comedy, entitled "A Mortgage on His Daughter," featuring Peggy Pearce. This is rich with frolic and clean and wholesome. This will be followed by a heart interest play "In His Mind's Eye," a production that teaches a great moral lesson. Next on the program will be the "Animated Weekly," showing in picture form the great news features of the day. The program will close with a one reel Powers comedy, entitled "The Ore Mystery." The admission at the Arcana is only five cents. See the best for the least at Manager Potts' popular play house.

"Then the Call Came" at the Majestic Tonight.

The Majestic theatre, Second street, pleased thousands of patrons yesterday, everyone of whom enjoyed the rich program. Tonight the Majestic will furnish a program that is the equal of the one yesterday, and at the small price of 5 cents. First will be "Then the Call Came," a two reel Gaumont feature that is full of thrilling climaxes and one that tells a thoroughly connected love story with all the embellishments on the side. This will be followed by a side-splitting comedy, entitled, "Henry Walker's Woe." The big program will come to a happy close by the rendition of an American production "The Forecaster." Every feature tonight is a headliner and you should by all means be a Majestic patron tonight.

Severe Bronchial Cough

Yields Quickly to Vinol

Here is another letter we are permitted to publish for the benefit of Portsmouth people who suffer from chronic coughs, colds or bronchitis.

Miss Oda Nelson, a stenographer, of Teaneck, N. J., says: "I suffered from a severe bronchial cough. I had had coughing spells and became so weak it was hard for me to go to business day after day. I tried cough medicines and doctors' prescriptions without benefit. Through a friend I learned of Vinol and after taking one bottle my bronchial trouble was better. Its continued use stopped the cough, built me up and I gained in weight."

It is the combined action of the medicinal elements of cod livers aided by the blood-making and strength-giving properties of tonic iron and beef peptone, which makes Vinol a constitutional remedy for chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis, and at the same time it will build up the weakened, run-down system and re-establish strength.

Don't forget we return your money if it fails to give you satisfaction. Frank Amann, Druggist, Portsmouth, O.

theatre, has a wonderful production for his patrons tonight. It is a three reel feature, produced by the Lubin company and entitled "Bold Emmett, or Ireland's Martyr." It is a comedy drama full of action and heart interest and is instructive as well. The picture was made in Ireland, so that the settings will be absolutely true to nature. This great play, which should interest everybody, will be put on by an all star cast, the leading parts being acted by Valentine Grant and Sidney Olcott, two local favorites. It tells about the love of a couple which ends beautifully but after many vicissitudes. This will be followed by a rip-roaring comedy, produced by the Vitagraph company entitled "The Serpent's Tooth." The admission at the Exhibit is only five cents, despite the fact that the productions are of the highest possible grade. Come tonight without fail.

Temple Theatre Tonight
"The Ever Living Isle" is the spirited drama of adventure and romance of a Puritan maid and a Spanish buccaner, presenting the romantic stars Eugene Pollack and Bessie Buskirk. The third is a satirical burlesque "Rip Van Winkle," badly ripped, featuring Edith Thornton and Will Browning. The fourth is "Fayetta Perry" in the Casino star comedy "Ethel's Romeo" produced by the Gaumont company.

Y. W. C. A. NEWS

Thanksgiving Day was a happy one at the association. Twenty-five sat down to a big turkey dinner. In the center of the table was a fruit basket and at either end were yellow and white chrysanthemums, the gift of Mrs. Irving Drew. Place cards were in the form of turkeys perched on the top of apples in which were concealed slips of paper with a request for each girl to reply. Jokes, songs, original toasts and funny stories kept up a round of fun and laughter. At the close of the meal was a short service of thanks and then the girls scattered to various places for social times.

Negro Pleads Guilty To Manslaughter; Sent To Pen

J. William Crump, a negro, was sentenced to an indeterminate term in the Ohio penitentiary by Judge Thomas, Thursday afternoon upon his plea of guilty to shooting Robert Dozier, colored, at a C. & O. Northern railroad construction camp on the morning of October 31. He pleaded guilty to the charge of manslaughter.

The court tried to induce Crump to divulge the name of the man who loaned him the shotgun with which he shot Dozier, but the prisoner refused, saying that he had heard the sheriff say that "he would make the man smoke that gave me the gun." He admitted, however, that it was a white man who lives in Sciotoville, and that he borrowed it on the pretext that he wanted to kill a groundhog. Judge A. T. Holcomb, Crump's attorney, assured the court that he would use every effort to learn that man's name, and would advise the court later. The gun is now in the possession of the sheriff.

Crump told the court that the argument between him and Dozier started when Dozier stole a mess of pork chops from him. He shot him, he said, when Dozier threatened to kill him with an axe which he held in his hand.

Crump also told the court that he was a native of Washington county, Ohio, and later went to Winston-Salem, N. C., with his parents.

His trial had been assigned for next Monday. He was indicted on a charge of first degree murder, but that indictment was nolleed when he agreed to plead guilty to manslaughter.

MAN REPORTED 'DEAD' WAS VERY MUCH ALIVE

Telephones at police headquarters were kept hot Friday afternoon with long distance inquiries from relatives in Huntington, W. Va., regarding Robert Clutter, aged 23, who it was reported in that city, had been killed.

Clutter had been boarding at the home of Mrs. Emily Carroll, of 1103 Kendall avenue. Her sister Mrs. Emma Cook, of Huntington, was among those who called up and asked the police to investigate. When officer Osborn visited the Carroll home he was told that Clutter was very much alive. Osborn understood that he worked at Coburn Bros. mill. Later it was found he was not known there and the mystery seemed to deepen.

Then it developed Osborn had misunderstood Mrs. Carroll, she simply having told him to go to Coburn's to use a telephone and report that Clutter was safe.

EXCITEMENT AT SUN

During the afternoon performance at the Sun theatre Thursday, an usher was sent upstairs to ask the patrons in the second balcony to take seats in the first balcony. The entire number arose at once and started down. Some of the patrons of the first floor mistook the unusual noise that followed as occasioned by a fire alarm, and a small stampede was started for the main exits. The management succeeded in quieting down the major portion of the audience before the excitement became general and no one was injured in the rush.

The Ted Bailey Stock Company played to capacity houses both afternoon and evening.

To Acquire Curly Hair Over Night

(The Beauty Seeker.) There's a good news, indeed, in the announcement that so simple a method as applying plain liquid ammonia to the hair will make it beautifully curly and wavy over night. The hair dries in lovely waves and ringlets that are perfectly natural in appearance, and there is nothing at all greasy or unpleasant about it. The liquid, which is of course quite harmless, also serves as a splendid dressing for the hair, keeping it delightfully glossy and supple.

If one will procure a few ounces of liquid ammonia from the drugist, she will have enough to keep the hair in curl for weeks. It should be applied at night with a clean tooth brush. In the morning the hair will be very prettily wavy, without having that burnt, lifeless look acquired by using a heated iron.

HIS SLEEP, "IS EVER LIGHT, FROM PURE DIGESTION BRED"

Blessed is the man who invents sleep. The solution of the proposition that one person can get ample and sufficient rest from a very few hours sleep, whereas another after many hours awakes tired and in a lethargic condition, is in most instances a result of good digestion on the part of the one, and poor digestion on the part of the other.

In cases of entanglement of the stomach and its kindred troubles, the new medicine that has caused so much comment in this section, Tanlac, has been proven the most effective remedy for, and emblematic of this disease.

The dealer here in Portsmouth who has spent forty years in the drug business, states that in all his experience, he has never known of anything similar to the quite universal satisfaction that this medicine is giving, or the enormous demand for it, having sold three thousand bottles of Tanlac within the past few weeks.

Chas. Hansley, one of Seaboard's respected citizens, says:

"Nothing is too good to say of Tanlac. Two bottles of Tanlac has put me in good shape physically, having relieved me of indigestion and nervousness, enabling me to sleep sound and awake refreshed."

Tanlac is an extract of herbs roots and flowers gathered from many of the remote parts of the earth and compounded into the remarkable preparation by the noted German chemist, Trimbauch. Tanlac is popularly known as the "Master Medicine", and is now on sale at the "Tanalac Corner", Fisher & Streich's Drug Store, Sixth and Chillicothe Sts., Portsmouth, where representatives direct from the laboratory are explaining Tanlac. Tanlac is also on sale by E. H. Coburn, Druggist, at New Boston.

Shot Self In Hand

John Middleton, young son of Judge and Mrs. W. H. Middleton, of Waverly, accidentally shot himself through the left hand with a revolver late Wednesday. Young Middleton was alone in the house at the time, and was examining a loaded revolver which was kept in the house for protection. It was accidentally discharged, the bullet passing through the fleshy portion of his hand, inflicting only a flesh wound. His injury is not regarded as serious.

BANKRUPT NERVES

Each of us has a certain supply of nervous energy. Every act, even every thought, uses up some part of this energy. During rest and sleep the supply is increased by the blood which gets the needed elements from the air we breathe and the food we eat.

Your nervous energy is like a bank account. If you use it up faster than you add to it you overdraw your account. Neurasthenia is the name given to nervous bankruptcy. It means that the power to recuperate is gone.

The ideal can be built up so that it will increase the supply of needed elements to the wasted nerves and this is the only way that the nerves can be reached. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic that especially builds up the nerves because they supply to the blood the elements that the nerves need. Many nervous disorders, sometimes chronic ones, have yielded to this tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills when other methods failed to give relief. They are certainly worthy of a trial in every case of weak nerves and thin blood.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by druggists everywhere or will be sent by mail postpaid on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes $2.50 by Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Write today for free book on the nerves.

"A MOMENT OF GRATITUDE"

Manly M. E. church held its regular Thanksgiving service Wednesday evening at 7:15. A splendid audience of over two hundred was present. The choir rendered the anthem "The Lord is Good", and Mr. Weaver sang the solo, "Come Unto Me". The sermon was preceded by a splendid, helpful service of personal testimony as to the Lord's goodness. A liberal offering was taken for the Old Ladies' Home. The pastor, Rev. W. T. Gilliland, then preached on the subject: "A Monument of Gratitude", taking as a text I Samuel 7-12.

He reviewed in brief the previous history of Israel, showing how God had favored them, in grateful recognition of which Samuel erected the stone between Mizpah and Shiloh, taking as a guarantee that as God had helped hitherto, so He would continue to help. But it would be futile for us to erect such monuments to commemorate His goodness. As a nation, so Rev. Gilliland urged, we can erect no more splendid and enduring monument than a government that stands for righteousness. As a people the most fitting monuments we can rear are those institutions that promote the idea and ideals of the Kingdom of God. As individuals, the most acceptable monument we can erect as a memorial of His goodness, is a life that seeks to conform to the Christ life.

Get busy, men! Don't let the fact that you are temporarily out of a job make your whole future look black. Read TIMES WANT ADS.

NO MORE BACKACHE NO MORE MISERY

Hundreds of people have been relieved of the agonies caused by weak, diseased or clogged up kidneys by using Solvax, the new remedy that quickly reaches the source of all kidney complaints.

If you suffer with pains in your back and sides or have any signs of kidney or bladder trouble such as rheumatic pains, puffy swellings under the eyes or in the feet and ankles if you are nervous, tired and run-down, or bothered with urinary disorders, Solvax will quickly and surely relieve you of your misery.

Solvax is probably the most potent remedy yet devised for ridding the system of uric acid and driving out all the poisonous impurities which cause such troubles. It neutralizes, dissolves and makes the kidneys sift out all the uric acid and poisons left by the blood, and renders the kidneys and urinary organs clean, vigorous and healthy.

Many of the best druggists say that no medicine ought to be paid for unless it does the user some good. Solvax therefore sells under a positive guarantee to quickly relieve the worst cases of kidney trouble or your money refunded. Try Solvax today and if you cannot see and feel a decided change for the better just go to the druggist from whom you bought it and tell him you want your money back and he will return it without question. This is the strongest argument that can be offered in behalf of any medicine. Solvax is sold in Portsmouth and vicinity by Wurster Bros. and other leading dealers.

JURY DISAGREES IN MARSHALL MURDER TRIAL

Case Went To Jury 2:45 P. M. Thursday And Was Out Until 2 A. M. Friday

The jury in the case of Al Marshall, colored, charged with murder in the first degree, was discharged at 2 o'clock this morning by Judge Thomas after the members had indicated that they were unable to come to an agreement. Their manner indicated to the court that they were hopelessly divided on the question of Marshall's guilt and innocence.

The case went to the jury at 2:45 o'clock Thursday afternoon, and the jury was in continuous session from that time on until it was discharged, with the exception of an hour for supper.

Marshall was indicted on a charge of murder in the first degree, it being alleged that he was an accomplice in the blowing up by dynamite of a C. & O. Northern railroad construction camp near Sciotoville last August, which resulted in the death of five negroes and the maiming of a half dozen others. John Henry Smith, also colored, is in the county jail, awaiting trial on a similar charge, while Henry Barker, a negro, the alleged third accomplice, is at large.

Marshall was defended by Attorneys Mark A. Crawford and George W. Sheppard, while Prosecuting Attorney Joseph T. Micklethwait represented the state.

Prosecuting Attorney Micklethwait stated this morning that Marshall would be brought to trial for the second time on the same charge, but that the trial would probably not be held until after the holidays.

Before reporting to the court, it is understood that the members of the jury agreed not to divulge to anyone how the vote stood, but it was rumored about the court house this morning that the disagreement was mainly over the degree of guilt of the accused.

Finds Ring In Turkey's "Craw"

Mrs. Flora McClelland, wife of Alva McClelland, wishes Thanksgiving would come quite often for to her surprise when she was dressing a big turkey weighing 15½ pounds for her father, Frank Treat, she found in its

"craw" a fine silver ring. The turkey was bought five weeks ago from a Kentucky farmer who is probably mourning the lost ring.

WORKHOUSE OFFICIALS ARE TOLD ABOUT FRONIE

Fronie Hollingsworth, who fell from grace soon after receiving a holiday pardon from the Cincinnati workhouse, by getting drunk, will not be granted a hearing before Monday.

The mayor is so chagrined over her ingratitude that he has refused to see her, and turned a deaf ear to her pleas. He expects to decide between now and Monday what disposition to make of her. Bess Hurd, who was pardoned along with Fronie, has not yet returned to the city and it is believed purposely remained in Cincinnati to avoid returning with Fronie and taking chances on getting into trouble again. The following is a letter the mayor has addressed to the workhouse management:

November 25th, 1915.
Mr. Fred Bader, Superintendent, Cincinnati, Ohio.
My dear Mr. Bader:—You will be surprised no doubt when you hear that Fronie Hollingsworth is again in the city prison here, having been arrested at eight this morning as drunk as at any time previous to being sent to your institution in July last.

She secured some whisky in Cincinnati, had a few drinks before getting aboard the train, had a pint in addition which she drank on the way up. A gentleman who was en route from the city to his home here was in the same passenger coach that she was traveling in. He reports that she was so drunk that she put both feet and her head out of the window of the car at the same time, doubling herself into a knot.

This morning she secured more liquor and started out the railroad track through the city, throwing her clothing over her head and creating a real scene, and she was brought in and is again to be dealt with. I needly write this to enquire

RED AND BLUE SMOOTHERED BY SOUTH HIGH ELEVEN

Columbus Team Ran Away From Locals; P. H. S. Outweighed

By using the old, moss-covered fake half back line plunge South High of Columbus won from P. H. S. Thanksgiving afternoon on Millbrook gridiron by a score of 53 to 0, the first defeat suffered by the Red and Blue on the home grounds this season.

The Gray and Blue warriors outplayed the locals in every stage of the game and the light line of P. H. S. could not withstand the heavy onslaught of the heavy South High backfield warriors who tore through Portsmouth's line for 20 and 30 yard runs time after time. Quinn's punting and Wilson's running featuring for the Red and Blue while Smith, Smallwood and Seuffer carried off all honors for the visitors.

The visitors had the locals on the jump from the start, the oval being continually in Portsmouth territory. There seemed to be no stopping of Smith and Smallwood. When Smith and Seuffer left the game in the third quarter not a score was made which showed that the two had considerable to do with the scoring machine of the visitors.

The silent signal system used by the up-state lads kept P. H. S. guessing. The interference displayed by Columbus was the best ever seen on the local field.

The crowd was the largest of the season and the loyal high school fans rent the air with school yells the first ten minutes of the game or until Columbus scored the first touchdown. Tense then reigned supreme, the only thing breaking the silence being the yelling of the visitors who delighted in rattling the locals. The Columbus lads outweighed the Red and Blue warriors 15 pounds to the man. The locals did not have a chance for a touchdown. After the first half P. H. S. used five substitutes.

Columbus kicked off. Morris received the oval and ran to the 30 yard line. Wilson and Quinn failed to gain on line backs. Wilson broke through for five yards. Quinn punted to 50 yard line. Smith and Smallwood carried the ball on line plunges to the 30 yard line, where Nutter got the ball on fumble on the locals 14 yard line. Quinn punted 40 yards. The first half ended 21 to 0.

Lycher and Brooks replaced Smith and Seuffer. Marting took Coleman's place. Wilson took the ball on the kick off and ran 25 yards. On the next play he lost three yards. Quinn broke through for 5 yards. Quinn punted 40 yards. Nutter then made two splendid tackles by getting through the line and throwing Smallwood for losses of 11 yards and 7 yards. Brooks made 4 yards and Lycher punted 30 yards. Morris receiving the oval.

Wilson fumbled and recovered, loss 7 yards. Trone made 1 yard and Quinn punted 35 yards. Sherman getting the oval. Brooks, Smallwood and Lycher made big gains through the line. Smallwood ran 27 yards for a touchdown. The kick out was to one side and Thornton missed the goal.

Wilson took the pigskin on the kick-off. Thomas replaced Nutter. Smallwood carried the ball to the 5 yards line. Columbus was penalized 5 yards. P. H. S. got the ball on downs on the 1 yard line.

Smith and Seuffer went back in and the scoring started again. Quinn punted to the middle of the field from back of the goal line. Sherman got the ball. Smith made two runs for 19 yards. Smallwood ran 16 yards for a touchdown. Smith kicked goal.

NO DOUBT ABOUT THIS PAIR

There isn't any doubt but what Mahan of Harvard and Barrett of Cornell will be placed on Walter Camp's All American team this year. The brilliant and consistent work of these backfield workers has earned them this honor. They are easily the class of the country in their respective positions and would be a pair of demons were they on the same team.

Looks Blue For Connie

Connie Mack has been making friends with Frank Baker, but the chances are all in favor of Baker's going to either the New York Americans or the Chicago White Sox. The Athletics finished the season with a hopeless crew of gentlemen who were handy with their feet and footy with their hands, and it is hard to see where Connie can get much help during the winter.

W. V. U. WON GAME

Fairmont, Nov. 26—Outplaying their old rivals at every department of the game, West Virginia University came back into her own today when before a crowd of 8,000 wildly cheering fans she defeated West Virginia Wesleyan college for the championship by a score of 30 to 0.

St. Louis Was Overwhelmed

St. Louis, Nov. 26—Overwhelming superiority in speed and technique, and a slight advantage in weight enabled the Georgetown College eleven of Washington, D. C., to defeat St. Louis University 30 to 0 here Thursday.

Cornell Defeated Pennsylvania; Score 24 to 9; Barrett Starred

Philadelphia, Nov. 26—Cornell defeated the University of Pennsylvania on Franklin Field, Thursday, in one of the most stirring contests seen on that battle-scarred gridiron in a long time, and today the Ithacans are claiming the football championship of the East.

The score was 24 to 9, but it does not indicate the terrible scare the fighting Quakers gave the undefeated Big Red team right down to the last period of play. The final quarter opened with Pennsylvania leading 9 to 7 and Cornell fighting desperately to turn the tide of victory in her favor, the marvelous

Ivory Knobs Victorious, Clod Hoppers Trimmed

Those heartless Ivory Knobs, led forward by their fearless captain, Dr. Perry Winkler Young, flanked by Private R. D. York, whose patriotism was never questioned, but whose marksmanship has hitherto been of the frapped order, swept the Clod Hoppers off their toes today Thursday evening, when they took three in a row on alleys 4 and 5, Play House.

A large and ornate crowd was on the floor, lending encouragement to first this one and then that one. The Ivory Knobs won not because of their artistic superiority, but because of their ability to stand the strain. The margin of victory was close, indeed, but the second placers of the 1914-15 race had that necessary something and cashed.

Captain Jackson and his valiant band tried their dearest and came within a few pips of taking two games. However, some of the players fell down at the most critical moments and their chances like the black cat went over the garden wall.

The honors of the evening's festivities easily went to Raymond York, who bats second in the Ivory Knob line-up. No one expected to see the street railway magnate accomplish wonders, but he easily set the pace for his men and at the present writing is the leading bowler of the Masonic League. He has the distinction, along with his other justly earned honors of the high score of this year, his 191 made in the opening game standing out like a light house in a fog. He came back with 160 and ended with 158. Orville Sprague roamed right around expectations. He clipped off 166 in his sandwich game, and then subsided. W. E. Clayton started nicely then lost one boot from his racing leg, which disconnected him during the second period. He then threw science to the four winds and lambasted the new good for 147. Ex-President William F. Zottmann was there or thereabout all evening. He did fully as well as expected and grabbed off an average of 130, which is going some for Bill. Captain Young, who whizzes 'em down the sleek paths like the shells from a howitzer, shot into sundry and diversified splits in the opening game and really was ashamed to look his score in the face. He made up for lost time when he got the proper range and came through with a pretty neat average at that.

Now, the Clod Hoppers distributed honors quite evenly. It would take a lightning calculator to determine fully who was the boss. At a glance the mantle probably falls on the shoulders of Ed Leach, although Mr. Bradford was his next door neighbor and is probably willing to take issue with the insurance man. Walter Wilhelm led off and after a poor start came through with 164. This sapped his strength, however, and he succumbed like a tired child in the last game. W. W. Watson shot second and instead of getting better as the contest prolonged, seemed to lose his cunning. He changed his way through the forests for 142, then fell off 20 points and was shy 41 pins when the smoke of battle cleared away. Captain Jackson, with determination written all over his clear cut countenance, secured 127 and then went after the pins for fair, getting 157 in the sandwich game. He finished with 128.

It was some battle, hugely appreciated by the crowd of turkey eaters and cranberry devourers. The score:

Ivory Knobs 1 2 3
Sprague ..... 143 166 123
York ..... 191 160 158
Clayton ..... 154 118 147

Game Ends In Tie

A large crowd was at Straus' park Thursday afternoon to see the Muldoons battle with the Safety First team of Chillicothe. Both teams were evenly matched, and after the smoke of battle cleared the score stood 6 to 6.

Captain Phillips made the Muldoons' touchdown after a series of straight line plunges. The Chillicothe center made the visitors' touchdown when the Muldoons fumbled on their three yard line. Foster and Bowser did the heavy work for the Muldoons. The local lineup was as follows:

T. Cleveland, c; Foster, r. g.; Scott, l. g.; Bowser, r. t.; McKiney, l. t.; Adams, r. e.; Williams, l. e.; Schreck, q. b.; Phillips, f. b.; Cleveland, r. h. b.; Semett, l. h. b.

visitations, as the one you are trying to surprise will be sure to find it out. Invite the guests over the phone or give them a verbal invitation. In addition to the birthday cake you could have dainty sandwiches, a salad of some sort, candy and coffee.

Dear Dolly—Please tell me what kind of material would be suitable for an evening dress. Also how shall I have it made and what color shall I get?

SWEET SIXTEEN.

Why not get a Georgette crepe, a net built over silk or plain little frock of tulle. Get a style book and select a simple, neat looking pattern. You will have to cultivate a taste along this line if you are to be a properly dressed woman and you might as well begin now, with a suggestion from some older woman perhaps at first.

My Dear Dolly—This is not the first time I have come to you, and you always tell me the truth, so I am coming again. My husband's work is such that he has to keep a stenographer, and her people have all died with tuberculosis and she says she has it. Now Dolly this man knows the girl has it and has been advised by his people to let her go, but he will not. Now Dolly what do you think he means? Dolly I am not jealous but worried on account of his health.

PORTSMOUTH RESIDENT.
I think you are just a teeny, weeny bit jealous. If your husband by knows the girl has consumption he is probably very careful, so you need not worry about him "catching" it. The girl evidently needs the money or she would not work, knowing as she does that her days are numbered, so I think it would be very unkind of you to have your husband dismiss her. Above all things, be charitable.

Dear Miss Wise—What objection is there to a woman marrying a man one year her junior?

THE GIRL.

The only objection is that it violates an old tradition that the head of the family, the man, should be older than the woman. However, there are many instances of happy marriages where the woman has been a few years older. Differences of temperament and disposition are more worthy of consideration than a slight difference in age.

My Dear Miss Wise—Can a boarding house keeper hold a trunk for back board?

STAR BOARDER.

No. A hotel keeper or inn keeper can, if he is taking care of transients, and complying with the statute.

Dear Miss Wise—I would like to have a recipe for a cream pie.

PIE EATER.

For one pie use ¾ cup sugar (scant), 1 heaping teaspoonful flour, 1-2 cup milk, 1 teaspoonful butter. Season with grated nutmeg. Mix flour and sugar dry, add the milk, scatter the butter and nutmeg over the top and put the mixture in pie dough before dough is baked. Do not use a top crust.

My Dear Miss Wise—Can you suggest a salad to take the place of chicken salad which would not be quite so expensive?

YOUNG MATRON.

You can make a salad very similar to chicken salad, out of tuna fish. This is less expensive than chicken and at the same time, delicious.

Dear Miss Wise—The other night you suggested that we have a taffy pull. May we ask how to proceed. We have never had anything like that. Do you invite all the guests to the kitchen, or make it and bring it in to the guests? Also tell us how to make the taffy and should we have any other refreshments?

KITTY.

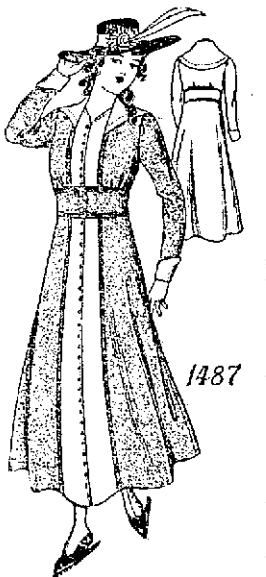

Provide each guest with a big apron, or have them bring an apron along and invite them all to the kitchen. To make the taffy a quart of good molasses—not sirup—should be put over the fire with half a cup of vinegar and a cup of sugar and boiled until a little of it hardens when dropped into cold water. At this point a teaspoon of baking soda, dissolved in a little hot water, and a lump of butter the size of an egg must be stirred into the sirup and all poured into buttered platters to cool. As soon as it can be handled with buttered finger tips, a little at a time may be pulled. There should be several workers that the candy may not harden too much before it is made. When pulled long enough—and the work requires deftness and speed to be well done—the candy becomes white and glistening. But

Brown serge was combined in this instance, with satin in a contrasting shade. This style would be nice in blue broadcloth, with plaid or striped silk for vest and skirt panel. ## A Remarkable Letter

Received Regarding Peterson's Ointment—Please Publish This Letter

March 22, 1915.

Peterson Bros.—I was afflicted with a very severe sore on my leg for seven years. I am a teamster at the American Agricultural Chemical Co., at West Park, Ohio. I tried all medicines and salves, but without success. I tried doctors and all others, but they all failed to cure me. I couldn't sleep for many nights from pain. Doctors after treating me for some time said I could not live for any more than two years. Finally Peterson's Ointment was recommended to me and by its use the sore was entirely healed. I gladly recommend Peterson's Ointment as a wonderful healing agent and sincerely hope everyone afflicted as I was to begin using it at once.

Thankfully yours,

ITCHING NEARLY DROVE A WHOLE FAMILY CRAZY

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 24, 1914.—"My husband had a rash all over his body, and soon the WHOLE FAMILY was in the same condition. It looked ugly and raised up on the arms and body in big bumps. This trouble burned and itched so that it would nearly drive one crazy. It was always worse at night, so we could not sleep. We all had this trouble for about two or three years, and during that time tried many remedies and prescriptions with no results. We tried Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap and it RELIEVED AT ONCE, and before the third jar of ointment had been used, we were all completely cured. It has been four months since we were cured, and there are no traces of the trouble." (Signed) Mrs. S. A. Clarkson, 1620 Lavin Ave.

Every druggist sells Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap, and physicians have prescribed them for 30 years in the treatment of skin trouble.

Four Converted At Wesley Hall Meet

The most notable day in the history of Wesley Hall Mission on Second street closed Thursday evening with a big religious service, during which four men, ranging in age from 45 to 60, were converted. The hall was crowded throughout the service, the audience being composed mainly of adults. Rev. J. E. Dibert made a strong appeal for the men and women present to consecrate their lives to Christian service.

More than 400 children were served at the big free Thanksgiving dinner from 10:30 o'clock until 1 o'clock; also a large number of adults, many of them human derelicts cast into Portsmouth for the day.

There was an abundance of provisions, and Rev. Dibert and his co-workers feel deeply grateful for the liberal contributions which insured the success of the dinner. Some of the contributions came from as far away as one hundred miles from this city, from people who are interested in the good work which Wesley Hall Mission is doing.

During the day a number of prominent people called at the Mission and were shown about.

"Thursday was the happiest day of my life," said Rev. Dibert this morning, in speaking of the Thanksgiving Day activities at Wesley Hall Mission.

IN SUCH PAIN WOMAN CRIED

Suffered Everything Until Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Florence, So. Dakota.—"I used to be very sick every month with bearing down pains and backache and had headache a good deal of the time and very little appetite. The pains were so bad that I used to sit right down on the floor and cry, because it hurt me so and I could not do any work at those times. An old woman advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I got a bottle. I felt better the next month so I took three more bottles of it and got well so I could work all the time. I hope every woman who suffers like I did will try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. F. W. LANSING, Box 8, Albany, Wash.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Reliable Laxative Relieved This Baby

Child Was Badly Constipated Until Mother Tried Simple Remedy

In spite of every care and attention to diet, children are very apt to become constipated, a condition responsible for many ills in after life unless promptly relieved.

Mrs. C. W. Wilson, of Shelbyville, Tenn., had trouble with her baby boy, Woodrow, until she heard of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. She writes, "I can safely say Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the best remedy of its kind on earth. It acts so gently and yet so surely. Little Woodrow was very badly constipated and we could find nothing that gave relief until we tried your Syrup Pepsin, which gave immediate relief."

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a compound of simple laxative herbs, free from opiates or narcotic drugs, mild in action, positive in effect and pleasant to the taste. It has been prescribed by

WOODROW WILSON

Dr. Caldwell for more than a quarter of a century and can now be had for fifty cents a bottle in any well-stocked drug store. A trial bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can be obtained free of charge, by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

South Webster Girl Run Down By Auto

There was an automobile accident near South Webster Thursday evening when a car driven by Alvin Aeh ran down and seriously injured Miss Catherine Ruth, aged 17. The accident happened on the Bloom Switch pike, Miss Ruth being on her way from Webster to a church service at Bloom Switch. Young Aeh had taken a car belonging to his brother, Charles Aeh, and was out for a ride with some friends. It is said that he was driving rapidly and came upon Miss Ruth and some friends at a curve in the road. The young lady was knocked down and dragged some distance. She suffered a dislocated shoulder, a sprained ankle and was badly cut and bruised about the face.

Miss Ruth was removed to the home of her uncle, Jacob Ruth. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ruth, of Mabees Corners.

S. S. S. Greatest Blood Remedy Gives Results When Others Fail

Nature's Remedy For Blood Troubles.

The purifying and curative properties of Nature's great remedy have made "S. S. S. for the Blood" a household name. Thousands today enjoying perfect health owe their recovery from blood or skin diseases to this universally used blood purifier. S. S. S. is made entirely from roots, herbs and barks, which possess cleansing and healing ingredients. You cannot be well when your blood is impure; you lack strength and energy natural with health; your complexion becomes pale and sallow; your vitality is weakened. When waste or refuse matter, which Nature intends shall be thrown off, is left in the system, it is absorbed into the blood and boils, pimples, rashes, blotches and other eruptions of the skin appear. S. S. S. goes into the circulation and removes every particle of blood taint or poison of every character. All skin diseases and eruptions pass away, and the smooth, clear skin, glowing with health, shows that the body is being nourished by rich, pure blood. Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison, all are deep-seated blood disorders, and for their treatment nothing equals S. S. S. Got S. S. S. at any drug store. If yours is a peculiar case write S. S. S. Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Madison Twp. Drys Organize For Fight

At a meeting of the dry forces of Madison township called by the president A. L. Riekey it was decided to effect a permanent organization and elect officers for the 1916 campaign year at once. It was unanimously agreed that no time should be lost in forwarding a personal work and educational campaign.

The following officers were elected: President, A. L. Riekey; vice president, George Allen; secretary, Orin Jones; assistant secretary, T. Frank Brown; treasurer,

Chas. Graham. A complete list of school district leaders were elected. Their names will be given publicity as soon as acceptances from all have been secured. Madison township gave a majority of 27 for the prohibition amendment in the recent election. The drys believe that their forces are growing larger and that the next trial of strength will reveal some surprises to the opposition.

ORIN JONES, Secretary Madison Township, Scioto County Dry Federation.

WANTS "FLOOD" VALVE FIXED

The mayor has requested the service department to make such temporary repairs to the Union street flood valve as will cause the valve to close as well for conditions when the river is out of its banks as is possible for it to do. He is taking this precaution because it is evident that the flood wall extension can not be constructed in time to take care of the usual spring freshets.

MOON GOING TO "BUST"---THEN NO ONE WILL EVER DIE

"The moon's gwan-to bust in a couple of days and nobody will die after that," such was the startling announcement that fell from the lips of Steven L. Barnes, a strange negro, when brought to police headquarters by Officer Grant Goings, Friday morning.

Barnes appeared demented and imagined he was an inventor. He claimed to have several patents in Washington, D. C., that would revolutionize present day methods in the scientific world. Among others, he declared, he had an electric light invention that was a "bird", also a new automobile starting device.

Barnes caused quite a flurry by his strange antics about the N. & W. passenger depot. He would run towards passing freight trains, as if he intended to swing aboard, only to draw back and clap his hands. Officer Goings decided he was not a safe man to be on the streets.

GOODBYE TO FOUNTAIN

The dilapidated and abandoned public drinking fountain at the Second street school corner is doomed for the scrap heap, for Mayor Frick has so decreed. ## A TEST OF STRENGTH.

The fight over the appointment of a Republican member of the liquor license commission for Seacoast county, is of importance chiefly as a deliberately planned test of strength between the organization headed by Charles E. Hard and the original Willis hoisters headed by Henry T. Bannon. It was with that idea in mind that a leading member of the Hard organization, Mr. Eckhart, was selected as candidate for the place and it was equally true that the Bannon selection, Mr. McElhenny, was also made on account of his prominence in local politics. Thus the burden of choice was put squarely up to the governor and he is in the happy position of the man who will be damned if he does and damned if he don't.

Should the Governor appoint Mr. Eckhart it will be hailed as the forerunner of complete recognition for the Hard organization, and it would not be surprising were some action taken in regard to the men who have already landed jobs from this county, and whose selection was not at all pleasing to the old machine. However, as Boss Cox, of Cincinnati, used to say, "that's further along". At present the great fight is on Eckhart and the Hard organization will stand for no compromise. They are going to stand or fall by Eckhart, and they insist that Governor Willis shall make a choice. And frankly they say they do not care much what he does, they only want to be certain as to exactly where they stand in the matter of patronage, claiming that as the dominant faction and with the control of the party machinery in their hands, they are entitled to say who is who in the matter of offices that come to Seacoast county.

LETTING DEFECTIVES DIE.

(Portsmouth New Hampshire Times.)

If a child is born defective in both mind and body, so that it is plainly destined to be a burden to itself and society, should it be allowed to live?

Dr. H. J. Haiselden, head surgeon of the German-American hospital in Chicago, has answered this question in the negative. And he has the courage of his convictions. He was in charge of a boy baby with a number of unusual ailments that would make him an invalid during his first year and a defective later if he were allowed to live. The baby's parents left the matter in Dr. Haiselden's hands. The mother was satisfied to have her baby die, rather than see it live as a physical and mental cripple. And so the surgeon "allowed nature to take its course with the child."

He did not put it to death. He simply refrained from performing an operation which might carry the baby through its first year, but would be of little permanent value. "Soon nature will wipe out her mistake," he said. And it did. The baby died. He is certain that this is the best way to deal with all such cases.

Many persons will shake their heads dubiously. Jane Addams indignantly voices the traditional view, which is probably still held by the majority of intelligent people, that "no human being has a right to take the life of another, whether defective or not," and that deliberately refraining from any practicable means that would postpone death amounts to the same thing as taking life. She maintains that every being born into the world has a right to have a chance to live. Dr. Haiselden believes sincerely that in taking the attitude he does he is a friend of the human race. Miss Addams calls him "an enemy to the human race."

The trend of opinion, however, is against Miss Addams, even if she does represent a present majority. Among physicians, especially, there is a growing conviction that it is wrong to keep a patient alive, if life to the patient means only a continuation of keen torture, with no hope of recovery or alleviation. And the argument is especially strong in the case of babies.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

(Chicago News.)

A woman's bravery crops out when she has a mouse in a trap. It isn't the straight and narrow path for the man who carries a jag.

Even the chap who defies the law may quail before the mother-in-law.

The father of twins should be doubly thankful—but he isn't, generally.

When shiftless people can't think of any other way to annoy their neighbors they get a dog that howls through the night.

The coroner's verdict on a recent automobile tragedy in Portsmouth in which he said that if an innocent person had suffered from the affair the driver of the car could and would have been held for manslaughter, should carry a warning to joy riders and speeders generally. There is really no reason or sense in running an automobile at top speed, and the man who does so is bound to meet with disaster sooner or later. Be on the safe side, be thoughtful of yourself and others, and drive moderately. Then you will get the full enjoyment out of your car.

Henry Reuterhals says there is not a general on the active list in the United States army who ever commanded an army assembled together either in peace or war. He might have gone further and said that the only living general in the United States army, active or retired, who ever commanded an army on field service, looked after it, fed it and maneuvered it, was General Jacob H. Smith, of Portsmouth.

That temporary bridge of Hen Road is still receiving more than its share of patronage. Travelers seem to prefer it on account of the bad condition of George White's tow path.

WHEN THE GREAT EUROPEAN WAR FEAST IS OVER.

BACTERIA IN THE AIR.

(Journal of the American Medical Association.)

To the air has long been attributed a subtle potency to incite disease when suitable conditions prevail. One need not go back far in history to reach the days when "night-air" and "sewer-air" were feared as the bearers of indefinable dangers to health. The discovery of the role of micro-organisms in the transmission of disease has largely changed this attitude. It is true that air from certain localities, such as soils or sewers, may contain an admixture of gaseous impurities—carbon monoxide and dioxide, marsh gas and hydrogen sulphide—which are not wholesome to the organism. But these admixtures are, in all except the most unusual circumstances, so small in amount as to have little if any harmful significance for health. The organic or solid impurities of the air give more cause for alarm, for they include the living bacteria. In several the proportion of micro-organisms is usually less than that of streets and houses, and they are usually harmless species. The movement of air in sewers is rather slow, so that abundant opportunity is afforded for the suspended particles, including the living agents, to become deposited on the moist surfaces. The gaseous components of the air are of secondary moment. There is a growing conviction, however, that in the majority of cases of so-called "air-borne" disease it is not the particulate constituents of the atmosphere that are directly responsible for the transmission of disease. Suspended particles, including bacteria, may, of course, be sprayed about by the acts of coughing and sneezing and thus aid in the dissemination of diseases, particularly those of the respiratory tract. But as a rule it appears that the diseases conveyed through the air are carried through the agency of insects acting as vectors or as hosts for the infective parasites. In many hospitals, therefore, the "air-borne" diseases are now treated side by side in the same ward without fear of greater transmission than if they were isolated in separate wards. Attention is centered on the possibility of the carrier agency, animate or inanimate, rather than on the atmosphere as such. As a recent speaker expressed a phase of it, the problem is one of wire screens more than of ventilation. It is, however, of interest to learn something regarding the prevalence of bacteria in the air of different regions. A recent systematic study by the New York State Commission on Ventilation showed clearly that the air of occupied spaces such as factories, schools and offices contains more bacteria than that of open spaces in the city or country. It is significant that the increase in streptococci manifests itself promptly in the occupied spaces. Whereas in country or city air there are rarely more than ten of this group of micro-organisms per hundred cubic foot of air, the number may rise to more than forty in factories. There is a rapidly growing tendency, supported by much convincing evidence, to teach that ventilation has nothing whatever to do with either the transmission of the so-called "air-borne" diseases or the lessening of their transmission. Furthermore, says The Journal of the American Medical Association, the opinion is freely expressed that transmission by way of the air is of infinitely less importance than transmission by inanimate and animate carriers that have been in intimate contact with patients. Nevertheless, the indisputable facts just cited regarding the comparative distribution of certain objectionable bacteria in occupied spaces still deserve respectful consideration in relation to the problems of public health.

Every day that THE TIMES is published, builders list their bargains on TIMES WANT AD page.

And even the weather man can go wrong once in a while. Still, when he goes wrong to the extent of giving us such a delightful day as he did for Thanksgiving after gloomily prophesying rainy and disagreeable weather, we can forgive him.

We suppose that Mr. Kays' Thanksgiving would have been a little happier if he had all of those appointments off his hands, and had been able to count up all of the disaffected and disappointed ones.

We take it that our foreman did not mean anything disrespectful to our New York correspondent, Mr. McIntyre, when he printed his picture upside down in Thursday's issue. Anyway, whether Mac is right side up or standing on his head, his column is a splendid one and well worth reading. He treats of New York matters of a lighter vein in a most delightful fashion, and his letter is one of the best daily features of The Times.

VALUE OF CENTRAL BUYING.

Columbus, O., Nov. 26.—The other day a Columbus wholesale grocery and supply house needed some ready money. The State Board of Administration always needs groceries and supplies. An astute purchasing agent of the state board and a sales agent of the grocery company got together. The result is that the state of Ohio through a far-sighted policy inaugurated and built up by far-sighted executives by this move saved a great sum of money.

This is just an incident. It is part of the every day and every week and every month life of the State Board of Administration. So long as politics are kept out of the work the State Board of Administration will continue to make good. Tendency is in the wrong direction, but there is still hope.

Thanksgiving was a day of joy for the wards of the state this year. It was celebrated elaborately in each of the state institutions. The ever growing price of food stuffs did not affect the buying for this year. Central buying is making the dollars go farther than ever. Experience has ripened the buying powers of those to whom the task is delegated.

and a few lucky strokes like those in the Columbus deal this week without political interference will enable the central buying plan to make a better record than ever before.

In 1914 the total cost to the state for each inmate of all the state institutions was $197.58. That includes the cost of every item pertaining to their care and keep for the year. In 1911 the cost was $217.26.

In 1911 there were slightly in excess of 19,000 persons in the state institutions. There are now more than 21,000. Yet the state board of administration, with its central control and management, has made such substantial reductions in per capita cost that it has saved from the cost of 1911, in three years, $1,453,510.62. The saving the first year was $558,080; the second was $436,638.94; and the last year it was $418,791.68.

In the state institutions the land has a value of $3,410,583.36 and the buildings a value of $15,381,651.34. The total value of all state property used in the institutions reaches the figure of $22,792,234.70. The appraisals were completed last week.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.
O.O. MCINTYRE.

New York, Nov. 26.—Twelve years ago a farewell dinner was given in the old Lambus Club in Thirty-Sixth street for a man who was going West to die. The great at this strange dinner sat at the end of the table very pale and thin, but cheerful and jocose. But the hard, racking cough rose ever from deep in his chest.

The strange guest's name was McKenzie Gordon. Among the guests were Wilton Lackaye, Tom Oberly and Pete Bailey, with his everlasting unction. Gordon was a popular singer and often sang at the White House in Cleveland's day.

The other night a robust, energetic man of forty walked in the lobby of the Empire Theatre. No one seemed to know him. Several nights later he went to the Beaux Arts for dinner. At one table was a party of eight men. "My God, Gordon!" said one. "I have just been telling these fellows of your death." The robust energetic man was Gordon. He has returned completely well after twelve years in camp in a desert near Phoenix.

In the autumn woods, up above the Hudson, the lifeless bodies of Kathia Landress and Yasha Lieberoff were found—a double suicide. The young couple had banded back to life their unscarred arms—their winged caps and sandals—their opportunity to live and love.

As an indication of what dancing has done to fatten bank accounts the New York newspapers have during the past week contained an announcement of the sale of two magnificent private dwellings on the exclusive section of West Fifty-Seventh street, opposite Carnegie Hall. The dwellings were sold to Louis H. Chalif.

The homes will be dismantled and one of the finest dancing studios in the world will be erected on the site. Particularly enough Chalif does not represent the modern tango craze, but rather is a student of the higher forms of dancing—the interpretative, the classic and the national dances. The modern, aesthetic and classic dances seem slowly to be gaining a popularity that was once accorded the glides, hops and jumps. Many predict that the new skating craze will entirely eliminate the tango fad.

William Allen White, of Emporia, Kansas, has found out what is the matter with New York. He says the city has no soul. He says to be a Chicagoan or Bostonian or Philadelphian means something definite. To be a New Yorker means to be yourself in a crowd.

Mr. White is here on a visit and says he would not live here though he were given a warranty deed to all Manhattan Island. He says New York is not America as London and Paris are Britain and France. It does not do the thinking and feeling for the country. "It just reflects what the rest of us are thinking and feeling" he says. "Did you ever notice that to get the wonder and the inspiration of this tremendous place you have to hold yourself aloof from it? Mix with it, and you're merely a water drop in a whirlpool. Instead of uplift you get depression."

A Darkened Soul

However fair the world may be, However blue the skies, The pessimist says, "Woe is met!" And still unceasing sighs.

Unable quite to banish gloom And join in general mirth, He seems to think there's never a bloom Upon this barren earth.

And never a heart that's beating true, In loyalty and love, These parlous times are filled with rue And never will improve.

But should you wish to make him blink And yet more loudly roar, Just ask him if he doesn't think The war will soon be o'er.

In spite of scoldings, Helen persisted in running away from home. One day, after a longer absence than usual, her mother asked:

Helen answered: "Oh, yes, mamma; that little voice is always saying: 'Run faster, faster, Helen; your mother is after you!'"—Pittsburgh Telegraph.

QUIET DAY IN COUNTY

Thanksgiving Day was a day of quiet all over the county, not one single report of disorder having been received at the sheriff's office during the day. The arrest of Stephen Sprague on a charge of failure to provide was the only arrest made by the county authorities during the day.

TOLL OF TORNADO IS TEN DEAD

SCORES INJURED AS STORM SWEEPS FARMING COUNTRY NEAR HOT SPRINGS

Hot Springs, Ark., Nov. 26.—Relief work was resumed at day break today in the tornado swept farming district south of Hot Springs, in which ten persons are known to have been killed late yesterday. Nearly two score persons were injured, several of them seriously. It is said the death list may go higher when full details of the storm are known. Owing to the wide area covered, it probably will be late today before accurate estimates of the tornado's damage are available. The city of Hot Springs was not touched by the storm and no one was hurt within the city limits. Six of the dead were white persons, all of them killed in the destruction of their farm houses by the storm. Many of the injured were brought to hospitals here.

SERBIA WILL BE BORN AGAIN SAYS THE WAR MINISTER

Paris, Nov. 26.—A prediction that no matter what happens Serbia will be "born again" was made by War Minister Bokovich to the Matin's Monastir correspondent who quotes the Serbian general as saying: "We are all ready to hold out to the last. If fortune abandons us altogether so much the worse, but we still shall hope. Serbia know how to win liberty after five centuries under the Turkish yoke. It will be the same tomorrow. Serbia will live forever. You cannot kill us Serbs, and Serbia will be born again to grow greater in the future."

LIEGE, ANTWERP AND MARNE FIGHTER HELD IN NEW YORK: DIDN'T KNOW WHAT HE WAS FIGHTING FOR—MADE HIS ESCAPE

New York, Nov. 26.—Heinrich Schultz, who says he deserted from the German army, was held at the Ellis Island immigration station today for inquiry as to whether he shall be given refuge in America. Schultz, who arrived yesterday, a stowaway on the Dutch steamer Noordwijk, tells an interesting story. He says he fought at Liege, Antwerp and the battle of the Marne where the German advance towards Paris was first checked and was a member of the army division which was the first to be ordered to retreat. Most of them were killed," he said. "I was in little danger when I fought. We could not make out what we were fighting for. I hadn't anything against the French. None of us did in the trenches. Then I got a card that my father and brother had been killed. They died for their country but I don't want to do that."

MEXICANS CROSS THE BORDER AND FIRE ON AMERICAN TROOPS

Policeman Holds Key To Death Of Wife And Officer

St. Louis, Nov. 26.—In William Street, assistant chief of police of Madison, Illinois, known as the biggest policeman in Illinois, rests today, the police believe, the power to clear up the mystery of the death of his estranged wife, Mrs. Catherine A. Street and Patrolman Charles F. Barnier, of the St. Louis police department, whose bodies were found in an alley here last night, each shot through the heart. Street, with a bullet wound in the right leg, was arrested a few hours after the shooting but denied he had fired the shot which had taken the life of either.

Conditions In Asia Minor Are Intolerable

New York, N. Y., Nov. 26.—The Asia Minor, arrived today on the Greek steamer Thessistocles. Dr. Rev. Dr. William N. Chambers, who has been doing missionary work in Asia Minor for thirty years, his wife and a number of women and children from the mission at Adana, said conditions in Asia Minor are so intolerable that he was forced to bring out all of the women and children.

LIBERTY BELL'S VACATION IS AT AN END; RETURNS HOME FROM CALIFORNIA EXPOSITION

Philadelphia, Nov. 26.—The Liberty Bell once more reposes in its shrine in Independence Hall, after a journey estimated at 17,000 miles to the California exposition where, according to its guardians, it was viewed by ten million people, one-tenth of whom kissed the relic. Ten million other residents of the United States viewed the bell on its journey to and from the expositions, making a total of more than twenty million who viewed it in the forty-three days it was absent from this city. Thirty states were crossed and more than 117 stops at cities and towns on the outward and homeward routes were made. Crowds filled with reverence and enthusiasm greeted the bell at all its stopping places, according to members of its escort. Moral decorations were heaped upon it and thousands begged for the privilege of touching it. It was the eighth trip the bell has taken since it rang out in celebration of the signing of the declaration of independence in 1776.

FIRE RETURNED; SEVERAL KILLED AND CAPTURED

Nogales, Ariz., Nov. 26.—Fifty-eight Mexicans, crossing into the United States at Harrison's Ranch, east of here, fired on six American troopers of the Tenth Cavalry today. Twenty-five other troopers of the Tenth cavalry who were on reserve post, opened fire upon the Mexicans, killing a number according to reports and bringing one prisoner into camp. Sentiment among Villa adherents was apparently growing against Americans today. The military authorities on this side of the boundary were unusually vigilant.

INCREASE IN INTERNAL TAXATION WOULD MEET DEFENSE PROGRAM COST

Washington, Nov. 26.—Cost of the administration's defense program for the first year would be met by an increase in internal taxation if Congress gives its approval to Secretary McAdoo's suggestion. In a formal announcement, Mr. McAdoo declared his belief that an increased tax levy was preferable to a bond issue, adding that it could easily be borne by the American people. He would raise the necessary revenue by lowering the income tax exemptions and assess various commodities. Secretary McAdoo's statement was issued in connection with an estimate of the federal government's revenues and expenditures up to the close of the next fiscal year. He places the amount of additional revenue required for the expenditure for 1917 at $119,800,324, including $93,900,000 for new measures for national defenses. If Congress approves of Secretary McAdoo's proposals, the income tax exemption on single persons would be reduced from $3,000 to $2,000 and on married persons from $4,000 to $3,000. The surplus tax on incomes above $20,000 would be lowered to $10,000 or $15,000, and new taxes would be imposed on numerous articles, including gasoline, crude and refined oils, horse-power of automobiles and other engines.

GERMAN CRUISER IS SUNK

London, Nov. 26.—The German protected cruiser Frauenlob has been sunk by a submarine of the entente allies, according to a semi-official announcement made at Petrograd, says a dispatch to the Central News Agency. The Frauenlob is reported to have been sent to the bottom in the same locality where the German protected cruiser Undine, a sister ship of the Frauenlob, was lost.

BIG LOAN GROWING

Paris, Nov. 26.—Subscriptions to the French government's "Loan of Victory" are exceeding all expectations. It is estimated in financial circles that yesterday's subscriptions in Paris alone exceeded 25,000,000,000 francs ($5,000,000,000).

PETITION RESTING

New York, Nov. 26.—The Trans-Continental trip of the great petition signed by 50,000 women voters asking for a woman suffrage amendment to the federal constitution ended here today. Mrs. Sarah Bard Field and Miss Frances Joliffe, who carried it from San Francisco by automobile will rest a bit before finishing the journey to Washington to present the petition to President Wilson on December 6.

DID IT WITH "NEATNESS AND DISPATCH"

Officer Joe Bonzo, who proudly boasts that he and his aged father have killed more opossums and coons than any other pair of men in Ohio, was called upon by a New Seventh street woman Thursday to kill a "possum for her Thanksgiving dinner."

ITALIANS CAPTURE ADDITIONAL GROUND

Rome, Nov. 25.—(Via Paris) Nov. 26.—The capture of additional ground on the Calcareo crest north-east of Gorizia, is claimed in the war official statement issued today.

PRODUCES RECORD CROP OF POTATOES

On his farm near Carbondale, Colorado, Lou D. Sweet this year produced the best field of potatoes ever seen by the leading potato experts of the United States and Germany. His yield was over 30,000 pounds to the acre—more than five times the average yield of the potato fields of the country last year. Mr. Sweet's farm was visited recently by a commission representing the U. S. department of agriculture and the agricultural interests of Germany.

SEEK WILSON'S SUPPORT FOR PEACE MOVEMENT

Washington, Nov. 26.—President Wilson had an engagement late today to see Mrs. Philip Snowden, wife of a member of the British parliament, and Mrs. Rosika Schwimmer, of Hungary, who seeks the president's support of the movement for a neutral conference to attempt to end the European war and establish permanent peace. They were to be presented to the president by Henry Ford. The conference is the climax of a telegraphic campaign in which women in all parts of the country, at the suggestion of Miss Jane Addams, of Chicago, and other leading women peace advocates, participated, urging the president to interest himself in having the proposed conference of neutral nations called.

RED AND BLUE SMOTHERED BY SOUTH HIGH ELEVEN

Columbus Team Ran Away From Locals; P. H. S. Outweighed

By using the old, moss-covered, fake half back line plunge South High of Columbus won from P. H. S. Thanksgiving afternoon on Millbrook gridiron by a score of 53 to 0, the first defeat suffered by the Red and Blue on the home grounds this season.

The Grey and Blue warriors outplayed the locals in every stage of the game and the light line of P. H. S. could not withstand the heavy onslaught of the heavy South High backfield warriors who tore through Portsmouth's line for 20 and 30 yard runs time after time, Quinn's punting and Wilson's running featuring for the Red and Blue while Smith, Smallwood and Seuffer carried off all honors for the visitors.

The visitors had the locals on the jump from the start, the oval being continually in Portsmouth territory. There seemed to be no stopping of Smith and Smallwood. When Smith and Seuffer left the game in the third quarter not a score was made which showed that the two had considerable to do with the scoring machine of the visitors.

The silent signal system used by the up-state lads kept P. H. S. guessing. The interference displayed by Columbus was the best ever seen on the local field.

The crowd was the largest of the season and the loyal high school fans rent the air with school yells the first ten minutes of the game or until Columbus scored the first touchdown. Peace then reigned supreme, the only thing breaking the silence being the yelling of the visitors who delighted in rattling the locals. The Columbus lads outweighed the Red and Blue warriors 15 pounds to the man. The locals did not have a chance for a touchdown. After the first half P. H. S. used five substitutes.

Columbus kicked off. Morris received the oval and ran to the 30 yard line. Wilson and Quinn failed to gain on line bucks. Wilson broke through for five yards. Quinn punted to 50 yard line. Smith and Smallwood carried the ball on line plunges to the 30 yard line, where Nutter got the ball on fumble on the locals 14 yard line. Quinn punted 40 yards. The first half ended 21 to 0. Lycher and Brooks replaced Smith and Seuffer. Marting took Coleman's place. Wilson took the ball on the kick off and ran 25 yards. On the next play he lost three yards. Quinn broke through for 5 yards. Quinn punted 40 yards. Nutter then made two splendid tackles by getting through the line and throwing Smallwood for losses of 11 yards and 7 yards. Brooks made 4 yards and Lycher punted 30 yards. Morris receiving the oval.

Wilson fumbled and recovered, loss 7 yards. Trone made 1 yard and Quinn punted 35 yards. Sherman getting the oval. Brooks, Smallwood and Lycher made big gains through the line. Smallwood ran 27 yards for a touchdown. The kick out was to one side and Thornton missed the goal.

Wilson took the pigskin on the kick-off. Thomas replaced Nutter. Smallwood carried the ball to the 5 yards line. Columbus was penalized 5 yards. P. H. S. got the ball on downs on the 1 yard line.

Smith and Seuffer went back in and the scoring started again. Quinn punted to the middle of the field from back of the goal line. Sherman got the ball. Smith made two runs for 19 yards. Smallwood ran 16 yards for a touchdown. Smith kicked goal.

The ball on the kick-off went to Wilson. A fake play failed and Quinn punted 35 yards. Smith and Seuffer ran the ball 10 yards and Smallwood ran the remaining 25 for a touchdown. Smith failed to kick goal.

Wilson received the kick-off and it took four men to stop him. Quinn ran 15 yards. Wilson made 3 more. Smith intercepted a pass. Smith ran 30 yards. Smallwood made 3 more. Smith intercepted a pass. Smith ran 30 yards. Smallwood 5 and Seuffer went over for 6 more points. Smith kicked goal. Williams took the ball on the kick off and ran 7 yards. Two passes failed and Quinn punted. Smith, Seuffer and Smallwood carried the ball down the field. Smallwood making the touchdown. The kick-out was dropped. Portsmouth put the ball in play on the 20 yard line when the whistle blew.

The lineups. P. H. S. S. H. S. Nutter, Th'm's, R.E., Robinson, Dinevell, R.T., Cannon, Lewis, Anson, R.G., Jackson, Brandel, C. Ske't'n, C. M. C. M'n, M'Engle, Mangold, Quinn, L.T., Gochenbach

D., Smith 5.

NOTES OF THE GAME. Coach C. F. Saunders accompanied the South High boys. The result of his coaching was plainly seen in every play.

Smallwood and Skeaton the two colored players on the Columbus team played against P. H. S. last Thanksgiving Day.

The Gray and Blue lads have won 6 out of 8 games this season. West High is champion of the Columbus high schools. South High and West played a tie game two weeks ago.

The long punts by Quinn featured.

William Dupre, Graham Revare, Rae Selby, Vaughn, Finney and Russell McCurdy of Ohio Wesleyan University, Charles Beatty, Harry Doerr, Harold Welch, Karl Muller, John Blum and Earl King of Ohio State P. H. S. graduates witnessed the "battle."

Art Carey makes a rattling good yell leader.

With one day of rest P. H. S. will play an alumni team Saturday.

Three won; three lost; two tied. P. H. S.'s season record.

NO DOUBT ABOUT THIS PAIR

There isn't any doubt but what Mahan of Harvard and Barrett of Cornell will be placed on Walter Camp's All American team this year. The brilliant and consistent work of these backfield workers has earned them this honor. They are easily the class of the country in their respective positions and would be a pair of demons were they on the same team.

Looks Blue For Connie

Connie Mack has been making friends with Frank Baker, but the chances are all in favor of Baker's going to either the New York Americans or the Chicago White Sox. The Athletics finished the season with a hopeless crew of gentlemen who were handy with their feet and footy with their hands, and it is hard to see where Connie can get much help during the winter.

TO USE REDS IN TRADE

Manager Herzog, of the Reds, says that he will go into the New York meeting with the intentions of using four or five of his Rhinelanders in a trade. Herzog will try to pick up another Heinie Groh.

W. V. U. WON GAME

Fairmont, Nov. 26—Outplaying their old rivals at every department of the game, West Virginia University came back into her own today when before a crowd of 8,000 wildly cheering fans she defeated West Virginia Wesleyan College for the championship by a score of 30 to 0.

St. Louis Was Overwhelmed

St. Louis, Nov. 26—Overwhelming superiority in speed and technique, and a slight advantage in weight enabled the Georgetown College eleven of Washington, D. C., to defeat St. Louis University 50 to 0 here Thursday.

Thousands of people go through TIMES WANT ADS every night. They read them with profit.

Cornell Defeated Pennsylvania; Score 24 to 9; Barrett Starred

Philadelphia, Nov. 26—Cornell defeated the University of Pennsylvania on Franklin Field, Thursday, in one of the most stirring contests seen on that battle-scarred gridiron in a long time, and today the Ithacans are claiming the football championship of the East.

The score was 24 to 9, but it does not indicate the terrible score the fighting Quakers gave the undefeated Big Red team right down to the last period of play. The final quarter opened with Pennsylvania leading 9 to 7 and Cornell fighting desperately to turn the tide of victory in her favor, the marvelous

Captain Barrett leading in the attack.

Pennsylvania "battered" about by various teams during the season and desperate from adverse criticism because of her poor showing, had risen like a flash in the second period, swept Cornell off her feet and took the lead amid the frantic cheering of her faithful followers. Then Cornell backed down to the last trench with defeat staring her in the face, showed her champion caliber. By a mighty effort she smashed Pennsylvania's great defense and battered her way to victory by scoring two more touchdowns and a field goal.

Twenty-five thousand persons saw the New York state team win her way to football honors. It was Cornell's third straight victory over Pennsylvania and her fourth win over her old rivals in 23 years. Barrett was Cornell's greatest hero and closed his football career by scoring 18 of Cornell's 24 points.

Graves Williams, of this city, played fullback for Pennsylvania. The local lad was a consistent ground gainer for U. of P. all season and is one of the star griders of the East.

Ivory Knobs Victorious, Clod Hoppers Trimmed

Those fearless Ivory Knobs, led forward by their fearless captain, Dr. Perry Winkler Young, flanked by Private R. D. York, whose patriotism was never questioned, but whose marksmanship has hitherto been of the frayed order, swept the Clod Hoppers off their toes Thursday evening, when they took three in a row on alleys 4 and 5, Play House.

A large and ornate crowd was on the floor, lending encouragement to first this one and then that one. The Ivory Knobs won not because of their artistic superiority, but because of their ability to stand the strain. The margin of victory was close, indeed, but the second placers of the 1914-15 race had that necessary something and cashed.

Captain Jackson and his valiant band tried their derisive and came within a few pins of taking two games. However, some of the players fell down at the most critical moments and their chances like the black cat went over the garden wall.

The honors of the evening's festivities easily went to Raymond York, who bats second in the Ivory Knob line-up. No one expected to see the street railway magnate accomplish wonders, but he easily set the pace for his men and at the present writing is the leading bowler of the Masouic league. He has the distinction, along with his other justly earned honors of the high score of this year, his 191 made in the opening game standing out like a light house in a fog. He came back with 160 and ended with 158. Orville Sprague roamed right around expectations. He clipped off 166 in his sandwich game, and then subsided. W. E. Clayton started nicely then lost one boot from his racing leg, which disconcerted him during the second period. He then threw science to the four winds and lambasted the new good for 147. Ex-President William P. Zottman was there or thereabout all evening. He did fully as well as expected and grabbed off an average of 130, which is going some for Bill. Captain Young, who whizzes 'em down the slick paths like the shells from a howitzer, shot into sundry and diversified splints in the opening game and really was ashamed to look his score in the face. He made up for lost time when he got the proper range and came through with a pretty neat average at that.

Now, the Clod Hoppers distributed honors quite evenly. It would take a lightning calculator to determine fully who was the boss. At a glance the mantle probably falls on the shoulders of Ed Leach, although Mr. Bradford was his next door neighbor and is probably willing to take issue with the insurance man. Walter Wilhelm led off and after a poor start came through with 161. This sapped his strength, however, and he succumbed like a tired child in the last game. W. W. Watson shot second and instead of getting better as the contest prolonged, seemed to lose his cunning. He whanged his way through the forests for 142, then fell off 20 points and was shy 41 pins when the smoke of battle cleared away. Captain Jackson, with determination written all over his clear cut countenance, secured 127 and then went after the pins for fair, getting 157 in the sandwich game. He finished with 128.

It was some battle, hugely appreciated by the crowd of turkey eaters and cranberry devourers. The score:

Muggsy McGraw is pulling up another long and pitiful wail. No, he has not been separated from his lads. He wants to abolish the 21 player limit in the National. He says it is not fair to any team

Game Ends In Tie

A large crowd was at Strass' park Thursday afternoon to see the Muldoon battle with the Safety First team of Chillicothe. Both teams were evenly matched, and after the smoke of battle cleared the score stood 8 to 0.

Captain Phillips made the Muldoons' touchdown after a series of straight line plunges. The Chillicothe center made the visitors' touchdown when the Muldoons fumbled on their three yard line. Foster and Bowser did the heavy work for the Muldoons. The local lineup was as follows: T. Clevenger, c.; Foster, r. g.; Smith, l. g.; Bowser, r. t.; McKinney, l. t.; Adams, r. e.; Williams, l. e.; Schreck, q. b.; Phillips, f. b.; Clevenger, r. h. b.; Sennett, l. h. b.

The Annapolis players stopped over at Philadelphia yesterday in order to witness the Cornell-Pennsylvania game, and reached this city last night while the West Point team and first substitutes came direct from their barracks early this morning.

A TEST OF STRENGTH.

The fight over the appointment of a Republican member of the liquor license commission for Scioto county, is of importance chiefly as a deliberately planned test of strength between the organization headed by Charles E. Hard and the original Willis boosters headed by Henry T. Bannion. It was with that idea in mind that a leading member of the Hard organization, Mr. Eckhart, was selected as candidate for the place and it was equally true that the Bannion selection, Mr. McElhenny, was also made on account of his prominence in local politics. Thus the burden of choice was put squarely up to the governor and he is in the happy position of the man who will be damned if he does and damned if he don't.

Should the Governor appoint Mr. Eckhart it will be hailed as the forerunner of complete recognition for the Hard organization, and it would not be surprising were some action taken in regard to the men who have already landed jobs from this county, and whose selection was not at all pleasing to the old machine. However, as Boss Cox, of Cincinnati, used to say, "that's further along". At present the great fight is on Eckhart and the Hard organization will stand for no compromise. They are going to stand or fall by Eckhart, and they insist that Governor Willis shall make a choice. And frankly they say they do not care much what he does, they only want to be certain up to exactly where they stand in the matter of patronage, claiming that as the dominant faction and with the control of the party machinery in their hands, they are entitled to say who is who in the matter of offices that come to Scioto county.

LETTING DEFECTIVES DIE.

(Portsmouth New Hampshire, Times.)

If a child is born defective in both mind and body, so that it is plainly destined to be a burden to itself and society, should it be allowed to live?

Dr. H. J. Haiselden, head surgeon of the German-American hospital in Chicago, has answered this question in the negative. And he has the courage of his convictions. He was in charge of a boy baby with a number of unusual ailments that would make him an invalid during his first year and a defective later if he were allowed to live. The baby's parents left the matter in Dr. Haiselden's hands. The mother was satisfied to have her baby die, rather than see it live as a physical and mental cripple. And so the surgeon "allowed nature to take its course with the child."

He did not put it to death. He simply refrained from performing an operation which might carry the baby through its first year, but would be of little permanent value. "Soon nature will wipe out her mistake," he said. And it did. The baby died. He is certain that this is the best way to deal with all such cases.

Many persons will shake their heads dubiously. Jane Addams indignantly voices the traditional view, which is probably still held by the majority of intelligent people, that "no human being has a right to take the life of another, whether defective or not," and that deliberately refraining from any practicable means that would postpone death amounts to the same thing as taking life. She maintains that every being born into the world has a right to have a chance to live. Dr. Haiselden believes sincerely that in taking the attitude he does he is a friend of the human race. Miss Addams calls him "an enemy to the human race."

The trend of opinion, however, is against Miss Addams, even if she does represent a present majority. Among physicians, especially, there is a growing conviction that it is wrong to keep a patient alive, if life to the patient means only a continuation of keen torture, with no hope of recovery or alleviation. And the argument is especially strong in the case of babies.

The coroner's verdict on a recent automobile tragedy in Portsmouth in which he said that if an innocent person had suffered from the affair the driver of the car could and would have been held for manslaughter, should carry a warning to joy riders and speeders generally. There is really no reason or sense in running an automobile at top speed, and the man who does so is bound to meet with disaster sooner or later. Be on the safe side, be thoughtful of yourself and others, and drive moderately. Then you will get the full enjoyment out of your car.

Henry Renteria says there is not a general on the active list in the United States army who ever commanded an army assembled together either in peace or war. He might have gone further and said that the only living general in the United States army, active or retired, who ever commanded an army on field service, looked after it, fed it and maneuvered it, was General Jacob H. Smith, of Portsmouth.

That temporary bridge of Hen Ruel's is still receiving more than its share of patronage. Travelers seem to prefer it on account of the bad condition of George White's tow path.

WHEN THE GREAT EUROPEAN WAR FEAST IS OVER.

BACTERIA IN THE AIR.

(Journal of the American Medical Association.)

To the air has long been attributed a subtle potency to incite disease when suitable conditions prevail. One need not go back far in history to reach the days when "night-air" and "sewer-air" were feared as the bearers of indefinable dangers to health. The discovery of the role of micro-organisms in the transmission of disease has largely changed this attitude. It is true that air from certain localities, such as soils or sewers, may contain an admixture of gaseous impurities—carbon monoxide and dioxide, marsh gas and hydrogen sulphide—which are not wholesome to the organism. But these admixtures are, in all except the most unusual circumstances, so small in amount as to have little if any harmful significance for health. The organic or solid impurities of the air give more cause for alarm, for they include the living bacteria. In sewer-air the proportion of micro-organisms is usually less than that of streets and houses, and they are usually harmless species. The movement of air in sewers is rather slow, so that abundant opportunity is afforded for the suspended particles, including the living agents, to become deposited on the moist surfaces. The gaseous components of the air are of secondary moment. There is a growing conviction, however, that in the majority of cases of so-called "air-borne" disease it is not the particulate constituents of the atmosphere that are directly responsible for the transmission of disease. Suspended particles, including bacteria, may, of course, be sprayed about by the acts of coughing and sneezing and thus aid in the dissemination of diseases, particularly those of the respiratory tract. But as a rule it appears that the diseases conveyed through the air are carried through the agency of insects acting as vectors or as hosts for the infective parasites. In many hospitals, therefore, the "air-borne" diseases are now treated side by side in the same ward without fear of greater transmission than if they were isolated in separate wards. Attention is centered on the possibility of the carrier agency, animate or inanimate, rather than on the atmosphere as such. As a recent speaker expressed a phase of it, the problem is one of wire screens more than of ventilation. It is, however, of interest to learn something regarding the prevalence of bacteria in the air of different regions. A recent systematic study by the New York State Commission on Ventilation showed clearly that the air of occupied spaces such as factories, schools, and offices contains more bacteria than that of open spaces in the city or country. It is significant that the increase in streptococci manifests itself promptly in the occupied spaces. Whereas in country or city air there are rarely more than ten of this group of micro-organisms per hundred cubic feet of air, the number may rise to more than forty in factories. There is a rapidly growing tendency, supported by much convincing evidence, to teach that ventilation has nothing whatever to do with either the transmission of the so-called "air-borne" diseases or the lessening of their transmission. Furthermore, says The Journal of the American Medical Association, the opinion is freely expressed that transmission by way of the air is of infinitely less importance than transmission by inanimate and animate carriers that have been in intimate contact with patients. Nevertheless, the indisputable facts just cited regarding the comparative distribution of certain objectionable bacteria in occupied spaces still deserve respectful consideration in relation to the problems of public health.

VALUE OF CENTRAL BUYING.

Columbus, O., Nov. 26.—The other day a Columbus wholesale grocery and supply house needed some ready money. The State Board of Administration always needs groceries and supplies. An astute purchasing agent of the state board and a sales agent of the grocery company got together. The result is that the state of Ohio through a far-sighted policy inaugurated and built up by far-sighted executives by this move saved a great sum of money.

This is just an incident. It is part of the every day and every week and every month life of the State Board of Administration. So long as politics are kept out of the work the State Board of Administration will continue to make good. Tendency is in the wrong direction, but there is still hope.

Thanksgiving was a day of joy for the wards of the state this year. It was celebrated elaborately in each of the state institutions. The ever growing price of food stuffs did not affect the buying for this year. Central buying is making the dollars go farther than ever. Experience has ripened the buying powers of those to whom the task is delegated, and a few lucky strokes like those in the Columbus deal this week without political interference will enable the central buying plan to make a better record than ever before.

In 1914 the total cost to the state for each inmate of all the state institutions was $197.58. That includes the cost of every item pertaining to their care and keep for the year. In 1911 the cost was $217.26.

In 1911 there were slightly in excess of 19,000 persons in the state institutions. There are now more than 21,000. Yet the state board of administration, with its central control and management, has made such substantial reductions in per capita cost that it has saved from the cost of 1911, in three years, $1,453,510.62. The saving the first year was $553,080; the second was $486,638.94; and the last year it was $413,791.68.

In the state institutions the land has a value of $3,410,583.36 and the buildings a value of $15,361,651.34. The total value of all state property used in the institutions reaches the figure of $22,772,234.70. The appraisals were completed last week.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.
O.O. MCINTYRE.

New York, Nov. 26.—Twelve years ago a farewell dinner was given in the old Lamb Club in Thirty-Sixth street for a man who was going West to die. The guest at this strange dinner sat at the end of the table very pale and thin, but cheerful and jocose. But the hard, racking cough rose ever from deep in his chest.

The strange guest's name was McKenzie Gordon. Among the guests were Wilton Lackaye, Tom O'Brien and Pete Dailey, with his everlasting "unction." Gordon was a popular singer and often sang at the White House in Cleveland's day.

The other night a robust, energetic man of forty walked in the lobby of the Empire Theatre. No one seemed to know him. Several nights later he went to the Beaux Arts for dinner. At one table was a party of eight men. "My God, Gordon!" said one. "I have just been telling these fellows of your death." The robust energetic man was Gordon. He has returned completely well after twelve years in camp in a desert near Phoenix.

In the autumn woods, up above the Hudson, the lifeless bodies of Kathia Landress and Yasha Lieberoff were found—a double suicide. The young couple had huddled back to back their unseparated arms—their winged caps and sandals—their opportunity to live and love.

Kathia Landress was 13 years old and a Russian Jewess who had written poems that showed promise. Yasha Lieberoff was 19 and a Russian Jew. He was a writer on the Russian paper Novy Mir, which means New World. Both came across the ocean to America some two years ago. Now they have slipped off together into the ocean of eternity.

It was a little story of impatience and distrust, common places of city life. Lieberoff was disgusted with the world and wanted to die. His sweetheart would not let him die alone. Beside them was a volume of Nadson's poems. Nadson was a little Russian pessimist who died at the age of 24.

As an indication of what dancing has done to fatten bank accounts, the New York newspapers have during the past week contained an announcement of the sale of two magnificent private dwellings on the exclusive section of West Fifty-Seventh street, opposite Carnegie Hall. The dwellings were sold to Louis H. Chalfin. The homes will be dismantled and one of the finest dancing studios in the world will be erected on the site. Peculiarly enough Chalfin does not represent the modern tango craze, but rather is a student of the higher forms of dancing—the interpretative, the classic and the national dances.

The modern, aesthetic and classic dances seem slowly to be gaining a popularity that was once accorded the glides, hops and jumps. Many predict that the new skating craze will entirely eliminate the tango fad.

William Allen White, of Emporia, Kansas, has found out what is the matter with New York. He says the city has no soul. He says to be a Chicagoan or Bostonian or Philadelphian means something definite. To be a New Yorker means to be yourself in a crowd.

Mr. White is here on a visit and says he would not live here though he were given a warranty deed to all Manhattan Island. He says New York is not America as London and Paris are Britain and France. It does not do the thinking and feeling for the country.

"It just reflects what the rest of us are thinking and feeling," he says. "Did you ever notice that to get the wonder and the inspiration of this tremendous place you have to hold yourself aloof from it? Mix with it, and you're merely a water drop in a whirlpool. Instead of uplift you get depression."

Sober and competent workmen with Brehmer, the Painter.

But should you wish to make him blink

And yet more loudly roar, Just ask him if he doesn't think The war will soon be o'er.

JURY DISAGREES IN MARSHALL MURDER TRIAL

Case Went To Jury 2:45 P. M. Thursday And Was Out Until 2 A. M. This Morning

The jury in the case of Al Marshall, charged with murder in the first degree, was discharged at 2 o'clock this morning by Judge Thomas after the members had indicated that they were unable to come to an agreement. Their manner indicated to the court that they were hopelessly divided on the question of Marshall's guilt and innocence.

The case went to the jury at 2:45 o'clock Thursday afternoon, and the jury was in continuous session from that time on until it was discharged, with the exception of an hour for supper.

Marshall was indicted on a charge of murder in the first degree, it being alleged that he was an accomplice in the blowing up by dynamite of a C. & O. Northern railroad construction camp near Sciotoville last August, which resulted in the death of five negroes and the maiming of a half dozen others. John Henry Smith, also colored, is in the county jail, awaiting trial on a similar charge, while Henry Barker, a negro, the alleged third accomplice, is at large.

Marshall was defended by Attorneys Mark A. Crawford and George W. Sheppard, while Prosecuting Attorney Joseph T. Micklethwait represented the state.

Missing Husband Is Located; Will Face A Serious Charge

A few days ago Olive Sprague, of Fourth street, learned that her husband, Stephen Sprague, whom she had mourned as missing for the past six years, was working at the steel plant in New Boston. She informed Judge Beatty, who immediately had a warrant sworn out for his arrest on a charge of non-support.

Sheriff Smith located Sprague Thursday morning and placed him under arrest. He is lodged in the county jail, awaiting a hearing.

Sprague, according to his wife, abandoned her and their two small children, aged seven and six years, respectively, over six years ago. He left home before the younger child was born, and has never seen it. For the past two years the mother has been the recipient of monthly allowances from the widow's pension fund, which has assisted her in providing for the two children.

May Submit To Operation

Miss Edna Boyer, a trained nurse, is bedfast at her apartments in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Stokley, on Third street, near Union, threatened with appendicitis, and it is feared will have to undergo a surgical operation. Her mother arrived here Thursday from Scioto Furnace in answer to a summons from her bedside. It was Miss Boyer who so successfully nursed Dr. S. P. Fetter and Attorney Horace L. Small throughout their long illnesses.

Board Takes Action In Bank Cafe Case

David Stahler, secretary of the Scioto County Liquor Commission, called on Mayor Adam Frick early Friday morning and informed him that the board had notified Willis Ward, proprietor of the Bank Cafe saloon, to discontinue the practice of promiscuously serving drinks to men and women in his upstairs cafe.

Mr. Ward, the mayor was informed, had taken the attitude that he was clearly within his rights under the law, but the board members, while not entirely clear on this point themselves, had advised him for his own good to end the arrangement, for, while it was admittedly permissible to serve drinks to families and respectable couples with their meals,

WORKHOUSE OFFICIALS ARE TOLD ABOUT FRONIE

Fronie Hollingsworth, who fell from grace soon after receiving a holiday pardon from the Cincinnati workhouse, by getting drunk, will not be granted a hearing before Monday.

The mayor is so chagrined over her ingratitude that he has refused to see her, and turned a deaf ear to her pleas. He expects to decide between now and Monday what disposition to make of her. Beas Hurd, who was pardoned along with Fronie, has not yet returned to the city and it is believed purposely remained in Cincinnati to avoid returning with Fronie and taking chances on getting into trouble again. The following is a letter the mayor has addressed to the workhouse management:

November 25th, 1915.
Mr. Fred Bader, Superintendent, Cincinnati, Ohio.

My dear Mr. Bader—You will be surprised no doubt when you hear that Fronie Hollingsworth is again in the city prison here, having been arrested at eight this morning as drunk as at any time previous to being sent to your institution in July last.

She secured some whisky in Cincinnati, had a few drinks before getting aboard the train, had a pint in addition which she drank on the way up. A gentleman who was en route from the city to his home here was in the same passenger coach that she was traveling in. He reports that she was so drunk that she put both feet and her head out of the window of the car at the same time, doubling herself into a knot.

This morning she secured more liquor and started out the railroad track through the city, throwing her clothing over her head and creating a real scene, and she was brought in and is again to be dealt with.

I merely write this to convince you that Fronie is a real bad girl when at home.

Respectfully submitted,
ADAM FRICK, Mayor.

Four Converted At Wesley Hall Meet

The most notable day in the history of Wesley Hall Mission on Second street closed Thursday evening with a big religious service, during which four men, ranging in age from 45 to 60, were converted. The hall was crowded throughout the service, the audience being composed mainly of adults. Rev. J. E. Dibert made a strong appeal for the men and women present to consecrate their lives to Christian service.

More than 400 children were served at the big free Thanksgiving dinner from 10:30 o'clock until 1 o'clock; also a large number of adults, many of them human derelicts cast into Portsmouth for the day.

There was an abundance of provisions, and Rev. Dibert and his co-workers feel deeply grateful for the liberal contributions which insured the success of the dinner. Some of the contributions came from as far away as one hundred miles from this city, from people who are interested in the good work which Wesley Hall Mission is doing.

During the day a number of prominent people called at the Mission and were shown about.

"Thursday was the happiest day of my life," said Rev. Dibert this morning, in speaking of the Thanksgiving Day activities at Wesley Hall Mission.

Mayor Sends Peace Telegram To Wilson

Mayor Adam Frick sent the following Thanksgiving Day telegram to President Wilson Thursday afternoon:

Woodrow Wilson, President, Washington, D. C.
The people of this city assembled in their respective places of worship and among friends this day are offering up Thanksgiving and prayers for existing peace in America and have prayed to God that He may direct the thoughts and so guide the hands of all those in authority that the foreign strife may cease. To the end that no longer may it be deemed necessary, occasioned through a desire for industrial supremacy, territorial greed or from any similar discord, to send to the bottom of the seas or into the bowels of the earth the life of the nation.

ADAM FRICK, Mayor.

South Webster Girl Run Down By Auto

There was an automobile accident near South Webster Thursday evening when a car driven by Alva Aeh ran down and seriously injured Miss Catherine Ruth, aged 17. The accident happened on the Bloom Switch pike, Miss Ruth being on her way from Webster to a church service at the former Bloom Smith. Young Aeh had taken a car belonging to his brother, Charles Aeh, and was out for a ride with some friends. It is said that he was driving rapidly and came upon Miss Ruth and some friends at a curve in the
